Jews, Arabs Hail Pope's Pilgrimage

Pontiff Expected to Set Another Precedent by Flying

BY JAMES M. LONG

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The unprecedented pilgrimage to the Holy Land by Pope Paul VI will be made in the first 10 days of January, a Vatican spokesman said today. Jews and Arabs alike welcomed the news.

The Pope is expected to break a second precedent by making the trip by plane. No pontiff has flown before, although as a cardinal Pope Paul frequently used planes.

Christian and Jewish leaders around the world praised the Pope's decision to make the pilgrimage, coming at a time when the Catholic Church has taken steps toward Christian unity.

Pope Guest of King King Hussein, Moslem monarch of Jordan, announced that the Pope would be his personal guest. A spokesman for Israel's embassy in Rome said: "We are waiting impatiently to be contacted by the Vatican." Both the Israeli and Jordan embassies said no visas will be required.

The pontiff will be visiting a Holy Land long divided by the hostility of Arabs and Jews. In his surprise announcement at the end of the Vatican Ecumenical Council's second session Wednesday, Pope Paul said he wanted to make the pilgrimage "on behalf of peace among men."

Tories Face Tests In 3 Elections

LONDON (AP)—Britain held three special elections today to fill seats in the House of Commons.

Main attention was focused on London's Marylebone district, a Conservative stronghold. There the former Lord Hailsham, who renounced his title to return to active politics as Quintin Hogg, was running as the Tory candidate against Labor's Peter Plowley, a 33-year-old teacher.

The other elections were in Manchester's Openshaw district, where Charles Morris was defending a safe Labor seat against Conservative and Communist opponents, and Wood-Colosseum Wednesday to provide, on the Suffolk coast. There former Keith Mason was fighting to hold a Conservative seat that could swing to Labor.

Intelligence Chief of Prince Souvanna Slain by Assassins

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma's intelligence chief, Col. Leuang, was assassinated early today as he arrived at his home on the outskirts of Vientiane.

The unknown assassins reportedly escaped in the dark.

Leuang was the chief of the Deuxieme (second) Bureau, the coalition government's intelligence section. Like Prince Souvanna, he was a member of the neutralist faction which in theory governs Laos in coalition with the right wing and the pro-Communist Pathet Lao.

There was no immediate indication of the motive for the slaying.

The assassins reportedly opened fire on Leuang's automobile with at least three automatic weapons. Leuang apparently was killed instantly.

The killers fired about 100 yards away from the colonel's house, which is in an isolated area overlooking rice fields.

2 Sisters Die in Lake Geneva Fire Tragedy

LAKE GENEVA (AP)—Two elderly sisters died Wednesday in a fire that destroyed their home. The husband of one was driven back by smoke and flames as he attempted to aid them.

The victims were Mrs. Rose Ricker, 78, Mrs. Carrie Martin, 76.

Mrs. Ricker was an invalid unable to leave her bed and Mrs. Martin was a semi-invalid. They were brought from the flaming house by firemen wearing asbestos suits, but attempts to revive the sisters were unsuccessful.

Mrs. Ricker's husband, George, 82, received a cut hand when he broke a window in an attempt to help them. He drove to the nearby police department to report the fire.

The cause of the blaze was not determined immediately and a state fire marshal was called to investigate.

26 Miners Die in Hungarian Blast

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP)—Twenty-six Hungarian miners were killed in an explosion Wednesday night at a coal mine at Tatabanya, the Hungarian news agency MTI reported today.

Four other miners were injured.

The agency said the blast was a damppipe explosion.

Tatabanya is a mining center 30 miles west of Budapest.

Mother Says She's Sure Oswald Did Not Shoot President Kennedy

BY BERNARD GAVER

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Perhaps one day in the year 2063, a school boy will open a history book and read of the Black Friday 100 years before she says. "But this is not for the on which President John Fitzgerald Kennedy was assassinated."

His study will bring him to Lee Harvey Oswald, a 24-year-old malcontent, who was accused of the assassination, but was murdered before being brought to trial.

Didn't Have Day in Court If he goes deeper into the story, he may come across the name of Mrs. Marguerite Claverie Oswald.

Mrs. Oswald, a grey-haired, 56-year-old practical nurse, is the mother of Lee Harvey Oswald.

She, too, may become the subject of history because any inquiry into the nature of her son must turn to the person who played the greatest role in shaping him. That person is Mrs. Oswald.

"Any guilt I have for making the him what he was, I will accept," she says. "But this is not for the on which President John Fitzgerald Kennedy was assassinated."

He did not have a trial. He heard him say on television, the same as millions of others heard him, "I did not kill anyone. I did not kill anyone. I know he never did. I know my son."

The death of her son is another burden in a life littered with millstones, according to her recounting.

Life began for her in New Orleans July 19, 1907, born to Dorcas and John Claverie. At the age of 24, she was left motherless.

Senator Shot Dead in Brazil

BRASILIA, Brazil (AP)—A senator fired three shots at an opponent in Brazil's Senate chamber Wednesday and missed his target, but accidentally killed a third lawmaker.

The innocent victim was Sen. Jose Cairala, who died while undergoing surgery.

Cairala, from the western state of Acre, was hit in the stomach by one bullet fired by Sen. Arnaldo de Melo.

Witnesses said De Melo whipped out a pistol and took aim from the speaker's platform at Sen. Silvestre Pericles, 67, a man known for his violent temper, had said he would shoot De Melo if he rose to speak. Both are from the northeast state of Alagoas, which has a reputation for poultry politics.

Pericles, a member of the Senate since 1957, had opposed the election of De Melo, a freshman.

Sen. Joao Agripino told newsmen he grabbed Pericles, who was about to return the fire, and disarmed him.

"His revolver was fully loaded and hadn't been fired," Agripino said.

Both men were placed in military custody. The Senate appointed an investigating committee.

Senate sources said the feud was personal with no bearing on national politics. De Melo is a member of the conservative Christian Democratic party. Pericles belongs to President Joao Goulart's leftist Labor party.

Cairala had not been involved in the dispute, sources said.

Byrnes Delays Word On Favorite Son Race

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. John W. Byrnes, R-Wis., is expected to delay for at least a month his announcement on whether he will be a favorite son candidate for the Republican presidential nomination in Wisconsin's 1964 primary.

Rep. Melvin Laird, R-Wis., leader of the Byrnes backers, said Wednesday the announcement was delayed in keeping with the political moratorium agreed to by both parties after the death of President Kennedy.

Loss of U2 and Its Pilot Did Not Involve Gunfire

WASHINGTON (AP)—After examining its records, Air Force investigators have ruled out the possibility that a U2 reconnaissance plane was shot down over the Gulf of Mexico two weeks ago.

However, they still have not pinpointed what caused the U2 to crash into the Gulf some 40 miles northwest of Key West, Fla., apparently after completing a high altitude photo reconnaissance mission over Cuba.

The pilot, Air Force Capt. Joe G. Hyde Jr. of La Grange, Ga., has been declared dead, although his body has not been recovered. The wreckage of the U2 was retrieved from waters 100 feet deep and has been examined by members of an accident investigation board set up by the Strategic Air Command.

The Air Force told The Associated Press today the remains of the plane showed no evidence of rocket hits or rents from bullet, cannon or other gunfire.

The cause of the U2's loss is not yet known. The Air Force said the accident is still under investigation.

Herbert H. Lehman

NEW YORK (AP) — Herbert H. Lehman, 63, four times governor of New York and also a former senator, died today.

Lehman, a leader in his later years in a reform movement, served 4 terms; also as New Deal leader in Senate.

He suffered a broken hip in February while vacationing at Palm Springs, Calif., but had continued an active interest in politics.

Lehman was closely allied with the New Deal, Fair Deal and New Frontier wings of the party.

Lehman did not enter politics actively until he was 50, after he had carved a career as a successful and wealthy executive in the financial world. He was a partner in Lehman Brothers, a banking firm, resigning in 1928.

Elected Lieutenant Governor That year he won election as lieutenant governor, running on a ticket with Franklin D. Roosevelt, who was elected governor.

Roosevelt frequently called him "my good right arm."

When Roosevelt moved on to the presidency in 1932, Lehman won the governor's chair and held it for 10 years—three two-year terms and one four-year term.

Then he became head of the wartime Office of Foreign Relief and Rehabilitation and later director general of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Agency.

In 1949, in a special senatorial election, Lehman defeated John Foster Dulles, who later became secretary of state in the Eisenhower administration. Lehman was returned to the Senate in 1950. He retired in 1956 at the age of 78.

Venezuelan Terrorists Release Col. Chenault

Kidnapers Tried to Sell Him on Communism but Gave Him Good Treatment

BY PAUL FINCH

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Tired but otherwise in good shape, Col. James K. Chenault of Sherman, Tex., was freed today by pro-Communist terrorists who kidnaped him last Wednesday.

The deputy chief of the U.S. military Mission in Venezuela told a jammed news conference his kidnapers tried to indoctrinate him in Communism, "but I told them some facts about life in the United States."

Four youths abducted the 47-year-old officer as a propaganda move in the terrorist drive to bring down the government of President Romulo Betancourt and to sabotage the general election last Sunday, a drive that fizzled.

Chenault sat with his wife Ruth at the news conference. "It's a great feeling to be point a few blocks from his home and he walked from there," U.S. British and French newsmen. "I was released unharmed at dawn today after eight days of captivity."

"I was held in some section of Caracas I cannot identify, but it seemed to be well populated. I was guarded constantly, but received reasonably good treatment, considering the circumstances."

The pro-Communist Armed Forces for National Liberation (FALN)—kidnaped him in front of his home last Wednesday in an attempt to focus international headlines on its campaign to sabotage the presidential elections last Sunday.

The terrorist campaign was a failure. A record number of Venezuelans turned out to vote.

The FALN in telephone calls to Caracas newspapers had said year-old officer as a propaganda move in the terrorist drive to bring down the government of President Romulo Betancourt and to sabotage the general election last Sunday, a drive that fizzled.

The FALN widened its campaign of violence to include British targets. Previously the terrorists were guarded constantly.

2 Kennedy Infants Are Reburied in Arlington

WASHINGTON (AP)—The two infant children of President Kennedy who preceded him in death now lie beside their father in Arlington National Cemetery.

The bodies of the infants were flown to Washington Wednesday aboard the family plane Carmentis and reinterred on either side of the late President's grave Wednesday night—presumably by decision of his widow, Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy.

The children are Patrick Bouvier Kennedy, who was born prematurely Aug. 7 and died within 40 hours, and a baby girl born dead in 1956. The boy had been buried at Brookline, Mass., and the girl at Newport, R.I.

Mrs. Kennedy and the late President's brothers, Sen. Edward M. (Ted) Kennedy, D-Mass., and Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, attended the brief graveside rites.

Sen. Kennedy accompanied the bodies on the flight to Washington. Mrs. Kennedy and her children, Caroline, 6, and John Jr., 3, returned to the White House Sunday night after spending Thanksgiving with other members of the Kennedy family at Hyannis Port, Mass.

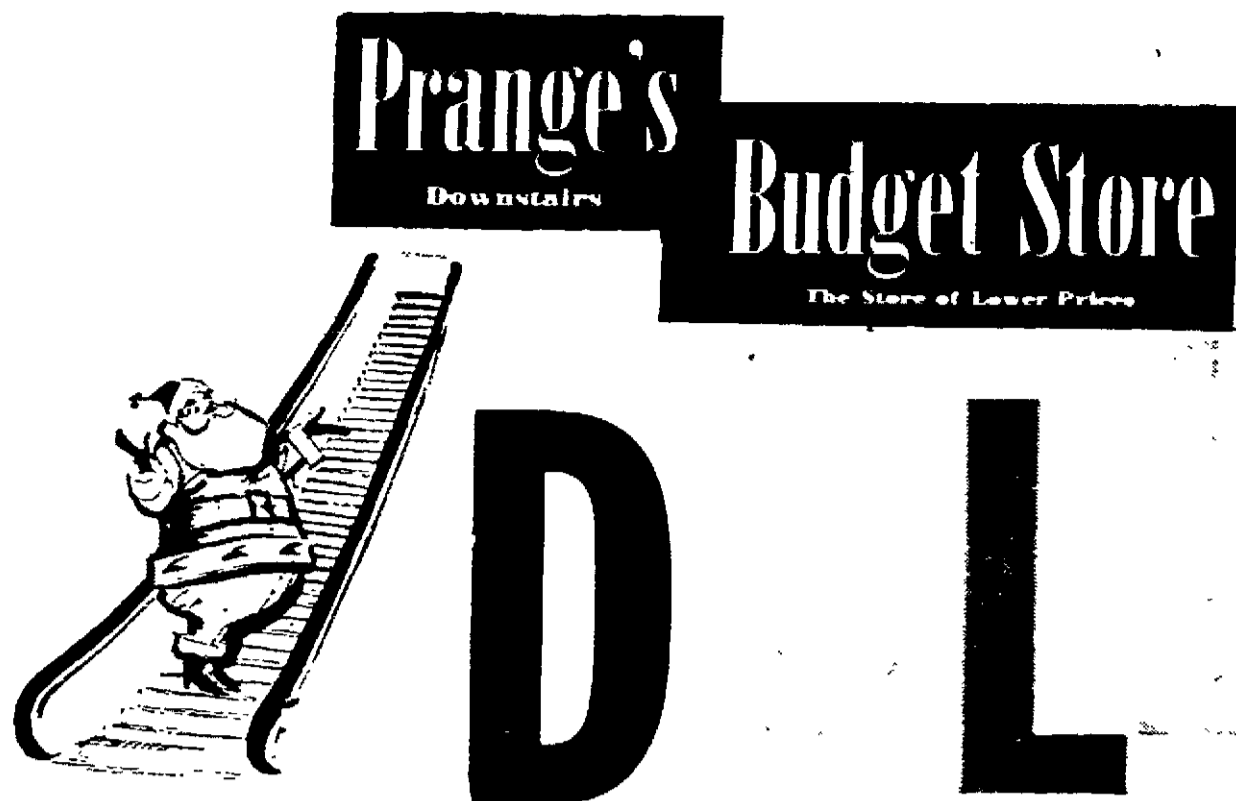

The burial service was held between 8:45 and 9 p.m., long after the cemetery had closed for the night and visitors to the President's grave had departed.

Johnson Tries To Speed Action On Tax Slash

Johnson set no target date for that goal.

"This is our dominant, relentless domestic problem and we have to face it head on," Johnson said. "The tax cut bill now languishing in Congress is the most massive single attack we can make on this problem."

Johnson said with the civil rights bill denied a hearing by the House Rules Committee, "the endless abrasion of delay, neglect and indifference have rubbed raw the national conscience."

"We've talked too long, done too little, and all of it too late," Johnson told the AFL-CIO officials.

Johnson also spoke of the Kennedy plan for medical care for the aged financed by Social Security. He said it "cries out for enactment."

AFL - CIO President George Meany called the Johnson speech "a good constructive statement."

Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, praised the President will have our unqualified and wholehearted support in his effort to get America moving forward."

Black Muslim Heir Suspended by Leader

NEW YORK (AP) — Elijah Muhammad, leader of the Black Muslim movement, has suspended his heir apparent, Minister Malcolm X Shabazz, for statements he made about the assassination of President Kennedy.

Malcolm X told a Black Muslim rally Sunday the assassination was an instance of "the chickens coming home to roost."

"Being an old farm boy myself," Malcolm X said, "chickens coming home to roost never did make me sad, they've always made me glad."

Muhammad said Malcolm X did not speak for him or the "Nation of Islam."

"We, with the world, are very shocked at the assassination of your President," Muhammad said.

Rockford Man in Jail on First Night in Sweden

ESKILSTUNA, Sweden (AP) — A Rockford, Ill., man spent his first night in Sweden in jail, and is quite happy about it.

Swedish-born Ernest A. Axelsson, 39, arrived Wednesday alone and in search of relatives.

He had left Sweden in 1909 for the United States. When his wife and one of his two sons died recently he sold his Rockford home and bought a one-way ticket for Stockholm.

But Axelsson found no relatives and no hotel room in Eskilstuna. Finally, he asked police for help, and they bedded him down in a cell for the night.

In the morning, police served Axelsson coffee and directed him to a sister they had located in nearby Nykoping.

The FALN gave no reason for its anti-British campaign, but it is believed to be a reprisal against Trinidad's release to Venezuelan authorities last week of six FALN members who hijacked a Venezuelan airliner and flew it to Port of Spain. Trinidad is a member of the British Commonwealth.

Meanwhile, the Supreme Electoral Council continued its slow count of ballots and said it expected to announce the official results of the presidential election on Sunday. All indications are that Raul Leon, candidate of President Romulo Betancourt's Democratic Action party, will be the winner.

Era of Speakeasies Prohibition Experiment Ended 30 Years Ago

BY JAMES DEVLIN

NEW YORK (AP) — Prohibition—the "noble experiment"—came to an end on a high-spirited note just 30 years ago Thursday.

A gavel slamming in Salt Lake City signaled that Utah had become the 36th state to ratify the 21st Amendment.

It was 5:32½ p.m., New York time. By 5:33 p.m., legal drinks were being downed by customers lined four deep at bars here and in cities across the country.

Now, says Licensed Beverage Industries, Inc., the drinking of liquor is less per capita than it was in the free-swinging era of the gangster Al Capone and the speakeasies; less, also than before prohibition.

It said the per capita consumption was 1.95 gallons in the prohibition years, compared with an average of 1.25 gallons over the last 15 years, and 1.37 gallons last year.

The industry placed the prohibition figures at 1.61 gallons.

Prohibition, the 18th Amendment to the Constitution, lasted for 13 years, 10 months, 18 days.

President Herbert Hoover had said of it: "A great social and economic experiment, noble in motive and far-reaching in purpose."

But however noble the motives of the dries, the west still wanted their drinks.

To meet the demand, the underworld built up a multimillion-dollar illicit business. It was an era of speakeasies, illegal distilleries, rum running, police payoffs and gang wars in the fight for the profits.

The gangs now ply other trades, but one of the most lawless periods in American history ended with Utah's action on Dec. 5, 1933.

The 21st Amendment, which repealed the 18th, provided for state and local option and that, in turn, has left a complexity of laws varying from state to state.

Cultural Talks May Continue Next Month

U. S. Tells Russia It Favors Resumption Early in January

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington: CULTURAL EXCHANGE: The United States has suggested to the Soviet Union that negotiations on a renewal of the U.S.-Soviet cultural exchange agreement start early in January, U.S. sources said today.

Originally, the negotiations were scheduled to begin in Moscow last month but they were canceled by the United States after Russia arrested Yale Professor Frederick C. Barghoorn.

He was released after a strong statement on his behalf by the late President Kennedy.

IN MEMORY: The Kennedy family has given the White House a painting in memory of the late President. It has been hung in the Green Room.

The painting is an oil by the French artist Claude Monet (1840-1926) and is entitled "A Morning on the Seine."

The White House said Wednesday the Monet was selected "because it reflects the President's deep love of the outdoors and particularly of water, and represents the very personal taste in painting of both President and Mrs. Kennedy."

TAXES: Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen has said it is possible his group will reach some decision on the House-passed measure before Christmas.

Madison on Verge of Housing Issue Battle

Proposal Before City Council Amends Ordinances to Prohibit Discrimination

MADISON — This capital city of Wisconsin is apparently on the verge of a vigorous struggle on the issue of minority housing rights, with signs of more popular involvement in the quarrel than usually accompanies city hall political issues.

Inspiration for the dispute is a proposal before the Madison City Council that would amend local ordinances to prohibit discrimination on the basis of racial origin, color or religious affiliation in the sale or rental of housing.

The issue involves the more militant demands of the relatively small but growing Madison Negro community, many members of which joined in the demands upon the recent state legislative session for the enactment of a state-wide law prohibiting discrimination in housing.

That campaign failed, and although the legislature will return to the capitol soon, there is a general recognition that the law-makers will not be disposed to bill and make it retroactive to Jan. 1.

Dirksen told newsmen Wednesday that he had assured Johnson there would be "no delay in moving along as fast as possible on the measure."

Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., Senate Finance Committee chairman, has said it is possible his group will reach some decision on the House-passed measure before Christmas.

"to take up measures which they killed earlier in the year."

The popular involvement in the city ordinance dispute was keyed several weeks ago by prominent advertisements in the local press sponsored by a citizens committee for fair housing which listed the names of nearly 2,000 persons who declared their belief that a responsible person should not be prevented from renting or buying the home he can afford in the neighborhood of his choice.

A later advertisement, sponsored by the Madison Board of Realtors, explained another point of view.

"Property Owners' Bill"

Declaring what it called a "property owner's bill of rights," the realtors organization declared that the private citizen has a "right to occupy and dispose of property without governmental interference in accordance with the dictates of his conscience."

The realtors board also invited prospective tenants and buyers of housing to communicate with it for assistance in finding housing "without bias of race, religion, creed or national origin."

Both contesting groups are now attempting to apply pressure upon the city council, which is expected to come to grips with the ordinance proposal during the next several weeks.

The fight is drawing considerable interest state-wide, besides it is likely to be the forerunner of other disputes in other Wisconsin communities.

BEFORE THE SPEEDOMETER READS 30—HELL KNOW HOW NEW IT IS:

The second he touches his toe to the accelerator, his amazement will begin. For no previous Cadillac ever moved like this one!

At 10 miles an hour, the most powerful engine in Cadillac history will already be working its magic.

By 20 that great Cadillac transmission—the newly improved Hydra-Matic or the completely new Turbo Hydra-Matic—will reveal a smooth, flawless kind of action he's never felt in any motor car before.

And by 30 the whole splendor of this new Cadillac performance will begin to unfold. New response. New quietness. New balance and poise. New alertness.

At 40 or 50, the car will have so much added acceleration that passing will be incredibly easy—with an extra margin of safety he's never known before.

And even at the full legal limit, this new Cadillac car will be so steady and quiet that the only sensation of motion will come from the passing scenery.

And then, he will take restful note of the other great new Cadillac virtues—the extraordinary luxury of Comfort Control... the magnificent comfort of the new contoured seats... the marvelous roominess and convenience that come only with the "car of cars."

Johnson Butting Heads With Problems of Jobs

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has just butted heads with a dilemma which haunted his predecessors in the White House. They couldn't solve it except in wartime. It's how to create more jobs for people, or at least enough jobs. Right now about 70 million people are employed and another 3.5 million are out of jobs. And the population keeps on growing every year.

Johnson, meeting with labor and business leaders Wednesday, set as a goal a 5 million increase in jobs. He didn't set a date, which was probably wise, since unemployment has a habit of going up as well as down.

Shortly after he took office in April 12, 1945, with the war coming to an end, which meant millions of soldiers coming home for jobs, President Truman said: "I am for full employment."

And after the Japanese surrender he asked Congress Sept. 8, 1945 for full employment legislation. But Congress was skittish about putting that kind of label on a law.

It finally passed on—called the Employment Act of 1946—which said the government had a responsibility for the general welfare but stopped a long way short of guaranteeing everyone a job.

When Truman signed it Feb. 20, 1946, he said: "It is not the government's duty to supplant the efforts of private enterprise to find jobs, or of individuals to find jobs."

The people do, however, expect the government to create and maintain conditions in which the individual business man and the individual job-seeker have a chance to succeed by their own efforts.

"That is the objective of the Employment Act of 1946...the President the duty of formulating programs designed to accomplish the purpose of the act."

To help him out, Congress created a Council of Economic Advisers. And that's the way it has been ever since. And there hasn't been full employment since.

When President Eisenhower took office Jan. 20, 1953, the employed were 61.5 million and the unemployed 1,398,000. The years passed, the population grew, the number of jobs increased. So did the number of people holding jobs and the number of unemployed.

In the 1960 presidential campaign, John F. Kennedy said: "One and a half million people will come into the labor movement every year in the 1960s and are going to have to find a job. And they come into the labor market at the very same time when automation is revolutionizing employment."

Then when he became President, he counted the score in his first State of the Union message to Congress Jan. 30, 1961. Here is what Eisenhower found when he took office in 1953 and what Kennedy found as he took over in 1961:

Eisenhower: 61.5 million employed, 1,398,000 unemployed. Kennedy: 64,452,000 employed, 5.5 million unemployed.

At the time of Kennedy's death two years and 10 months later, this was the score: About 70 million employed, 3.5 million unemployed. And these are the figures Johnson inherited.

Since 3.5 million people are unemployed now, there is need for 73.5 million jobs, plus another 1.5 million to come.

3 Oshkosh Youths Fined Levy Set at $50 Each for Trio On Beer Charges

WAUPACA—Three young men from Oshkosh were fined $50 each Tuesday after they were arrested through the cooperation of Forest Ranger Sid Miller and county police.

Miller saw the young men drinking beer and driving a car without license plates. He contacted county police through the state radio net, and the car was stopped.

Donald L. Truechel, 21, 611 Falls for off the premises consumption for persons under 21 years old.

William A. Milner, 18, 1101 S. Main St., Oshkosh, pleaded guilty to possessing beer for off premises consumption and was fined $50 and his driving license suspended for 60 days.

James Fink, 20, 12 E. 11th St., Oshkosh, forfeited a bond of $58.25 when he failed to appear to face a charge of possessing beer for off premises consumption. Justice Whalen said Fink does not have a driver's license.

GOP Has Invited Renk to Lunch

APPLETON (AP) — Wilbur Renk of Sun Prairie, a potential U.S. Senate candidate, has been invited to lunch in Madison Friday with the executive committee of the Wisconsin Republican party.

Talbot Peterson, state GOP chairman, said Wednesday night there was no particular political significance in the invitation, although he conceded that Renk will seek party endorsement and run against Democratic Sen. William Proxmire in 1964.

"I think he will," said Peterson, "but I don't base this statement on any conversations with Renk."

Renk, a farmer and businessman, said he would announce his decision after the first of the year.

OSHKOSH — Dr. T. S. Laudon of Oshkosh State College the faculty will speak Monday to the Valley Rock and Minerals Club at Appleton Subject of his talk is "Geophysical Exploration of Antarctica."

Dr. Laudon joined the Oshkosh State College staff this year. He was the subject of a recent feature article for his geophysical explorations in the Solomon Islands last year.

Of the its contingent fund to anticp- total tax rate, District 1 res- pated receipts other than tax debts will pay $8.83 for county levy in 1964. Other receipts in- and state taxes, $14.26 for vil- clude income tax $75,000 up lage operation, $4.85 for voca- from $54,000 in 1963; utility tax- tional school and transportation charges and $27.81 to the school district.

District 2 residents will be paying $8.83 state and county taxes, $14.26 for village opera- tion and $27.56 for school pur- poses. Cost of operating village government is below the levy of last year, but the increased state and county taxes and school costs resulted in tax increases.

Neenah Accepts Bid of $4,605 On Lift Station

A. J. Kiernast Co. Wins Contract for Park Avenue Work

NEENAH — A bid by A. J. Kiernast and Sons, Oshkosh, of $4,605 for installation of a N. Park Avenue package lift sta- tion was accepted by the Neenah Common Council Wednes- day night. Two other bids were received but the Kiernast firm was low.

According to Public Works Di- rector Wayne G. Bryan, the present lift station is over 40 years old and in dire need of replacement.

The council also approved a bid by Langstadt's Inc., Neenah, of $225 for the electrical wiring of the lift station. Boehm Elec- tric Co., Neenah, and Keil-War- ner Electric Co., Neenah, also submitted bids.

Central Contracting Co., Inc., Oshkosh, and Bahr Construction Co., Manitowish, submitted bids of $5,880 and $8,100 respectively for the lift station project.

Mitchell Street A layout plan for the "long time in planning" proposed Mitchell Street cul de sac was referred to the plans commis- sion by council directive.

The Neenah aldermen also ap- proved a quit claim land deed exchange between the mayor, and clerk, representing the city, and Bergstrom Paper Co. and the Soo Line Railroad.

Bergstrom Paper Co. wishes to move its 60 foot accessway to the Little Lake Butte des Morts fill area 100 feet south- westerly along Main Street. The exchange will facilitate a and speed the move.

A change order of $1,587.57 was approved for improvements, and repairs to Neenah High School. The order was accepted. Should the council purchase the site, it would be merely a change in landlords until the ex- piration of the lease or until the basement floor and rugs, was ger expressing his thanks to the council for placing him on the cemetery commission was ac- cepted and placed in the coun- cil's files.

A claim against the city filed by Felix Pozolinski, 214 Bond St., Neenah, for damage to his in his area.

Attorney General to Speak At Twin City YGOP Meeting

NEENAH — George Thomp- son, attorney general of the state of Wisconsin, will speak at the fund-raising meeting of the Neenah - Menasha Club of Winnebago County Young Republicans.

The event is scheduled Dec. 16 at Whiting Boathouse. The arguments over the appointment of Governor Reynolds' appointees without Senate con- firmation and resulting Supreme Court suit has focused atten- tion on the office of the attor- ney general. Thompson is ex- pected to discuss the controver- sy.

Plans were completed at a ner Parker and Dean Hewitt, meeting of the YGOP this week, vice presidents.

The Downtown Kiwanis Club of Appleton presented certificates of merit to three top junior high school students in recognition of their scholarship achievements. From left are Paul Ziemer, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Leonard Ziemer, Roosevelt Junior High School; Jennifer Rathbun, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rathbun, Madison Junior High School; Robert Kohl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theron Kohl, Wilson Junior High School, and Chris G. Larsen, chairman of the Kiwanis merit awards committee. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Oshkosh Council

Expresses Desire to Buy County Fair Land

OSHKOSH — Oshkosh council county moved the fair to a dif- ferent site.

The council also expressed their desire to purchase the Acquisition of the fairgrounds county fairgrounds "solely for is part of the comprehensive plan recommended for the city park or school purposes."

The vote was 6 to 0 with by its planning consultants and approved by the council at its Nov. 27 meeting.

The site would be used for ei- ther a park and playground or for school purposes and not for any residential or commercial development, the council indicat- ed.

Postpone Beer Law The council also Wednesday postponed the effective date of its ordinance adopted several months ago to raise the mini- mum age for the purchase of beer to 21 years of age. The or- dinance will not go into effect until after a referendum on that question at the April election.

Petitions had been filed with the council asking for a referendum on the ordinance.

Council members also direct- ed the city officials to take such action as may be necessary to secure automatic crossing gates or other additional crossing pro- tection at the Soo Line Railroad crossing of Algoma Boulevard, scene of a fatal accident last winter and of several serious accidents since.

'Toy Shop' Play Set at St. Mary High

MENASHA — "The Toy Shop" by Percival Wilde will be the Christmas production at St. Mary High School at 8 p.m. Dec. 15 in the school auditorium. Miss Rosemary Trettin is the direct- or.

Special performances will be given the morning and after- noon of Dec. 13 for the grade school children at St. Mary's.

Patricia Weber as Betsy has the leading feminine role and Larry Lehner plays opposite her as Bobby.

The roles of toys are masked doll, Luane Briske; Pierrot doll, Scott Butterfield; wooden sol- dier, Randall Walbrun; French doll, Carol Merbs; sailor doll, Helen Johnson; rag doll, Sandra Porsche; rubber dog, Lee Lehn- er; jack-in-the-box, Tom Jape; and the drummer boy, Tum Tuel- le.

Three of the student actors will play two roles: Scott But- terfield is the father; Luane Briske, the mother; and Ran- dall Walbrun, the policeman. Tom Miller is the storekeeper.

Enlisted into the Second bat- talion were Roger J. Nussbaum, 228 Margaret St., Kaukauna, who joined Company H; and Carl P. Beringer Jr., route 1, Neenah, who joined Company G of the Second Battalion.

Advisory Status Of Chicago Firm To be Clarified

indicated Lake Michigan should be the logical new source. The report cost $3,000 and the bill has been paid.

The board wants to know if the water commission fulfilled all financial obligations and has no other written contract with the firm before it proceeds to interview consultants interested in the proposed multi-million dollar pipeline project.

The Chicago firm would be one of 13 to be considered for the engineering contract to make a complete study of the city's water needs.

Question Raised on Consultant's Role in Appleton Pipeline

Is the firm of Alvord, Burdick and Howsen of Chicago still in the employ of the Appleton Water Works in connection with the city's plan to obtain a new source for its water supply?

The question will be answered Dec. 10 at 1:30 p.m. when members of the water commission and the board of public works meet at city hall.

The board decided on the meeting Tuesday when it discussed interviewing consultants for the proposed water expansion program.

Utility Consultant
Alvord, Burdick & Howsen has been the local utility's consultant for many years and prepared a preliminary report which

Public Works Director Robert W. Bues said he received correspondence from the Chicago firm which indicated it wants to prepare a supplement to its original report. Bues said it appears the firm feels an agreement still exists between it and the water commission.

"We can't start interviewing consultants until we have this matter cleared up," Bues advised the board. Since submitting the original report, Alvord, Burdick & Howsen filed supplemental information with the water commission, Bues said.

Board members said the water commission should bring St.

No Standing Room

Fire Chief Warns of Crowded Yule Services

A campaign to encourage church officials this Christmas to turn back worshippers entering a filled-to-capacity church during Christmas services will be undertaken by Appleton Fire Department authorities this year.

Fire Chief Roland Kuehl said he planned to inform each Appleton church of the dangers of overcrowding church buildings during holiday services. He said many churches, particularly those built near the turn of the century and in the inner-core area of the city are potential fire hazards.

Officials will be asked to forbid standing room and not to allow folding chairs. Aisles will not be filled and are to be used only to provide exits and entrances.

In a statement to Catholic church officials, Bishop Bona asked "Why should you endanger the safety of those who come early by illegally and negligently accommodating latecomers?"

Bishop Bona also included the following points to be considered by officials:

- Put one specific person in ### charge of fire safety in the church.

No Trees
Do not include Christmas trees as decorations. The trees are not liturgical, practical, historical or safe, and in some cases, not legal. If they must be used, buy a metal tree.

Use only fire-safe decorations and try to ignite them before using them. Make sure all lights are approved by the Underwriters' Laboratory.

A court has ruled that to leave candles accessible to children constitutes negligence. Do not allow candles, vigil lights or other open flames near wreaths.

Stay away from elaborate crib sets which include straw and wood. Use paint approved as fire resistant.

Kuehl said in other years, Appleton church officials have been reluctant to follow suggestions from the fire department in limiting capacities. He suggested ushers turn worshippers away with the suggestion they arrange to attend a later service.

Rachel Carson Gets Audubon Society Honor

NEW YORK (AP) — Rachel Carson, whose book "Silent Spring" set off a national controversy, has received the highest award of the National Audubon Society.

A citation presented to Miss Carson said the book "alerted the public about needless and dangerous chemical pollution (by pesticides) of the natural environment."

New London Man Fined for Illegal Backing

Ronald Andrew Allen, 23, route 3, New London, pleaded guilty Wednesday to a charge of illegal backing of an automobile and was fined $20 and costs, the maximum.

He had been arrested in July and charged with drunken driving, but this was reduced to illegal backing. He has one previous conviction for drunken driving and had lost nine points on his driver's license before his arrest last July. He now has lost an additional two points, making a total of 11 of the 12 allowed in one year.

Outagamie County Corporation Counsel, A. W. Ponath asked the drunken driving charge be reduced. The motion was approved by County Judge Gustave Keller. Allen must pay costs amounting to $33 as well as his fine.

Allen was to have been brought to trial in January on the drunken driving charge. He pleaded innocent July 19 and posted bond of $250.

Ponath said he asked for the reduction because he felt he could not convict Allen of the higher charge. Ponath said he based his belief on testimony taken at an adverse examination Aug. 6.

Neenah Man Forfeits Bond at Waupaca

CLINTONVILLE — Joseph M. Borgwardt, 24, 1338 Park Court, Neenah, was arrested by the Clintonville police for inattentive driving and having an accident Nov. 30. He pleaded guilty by signing a stipulation and paid a fine of $100 and fees of $2.75.

Borgwardt's car left the highway on a curve and jumped the curb at the west entrance to the city, hitting a small parked trailer and a telephone cable, according to police.

Parents Turn Out in Large Numbers for Teacher Meetings

WINNECONNE — Parents turned out in large numbers for the parent-teacher conferences held last week in the Winneconne Community School District.

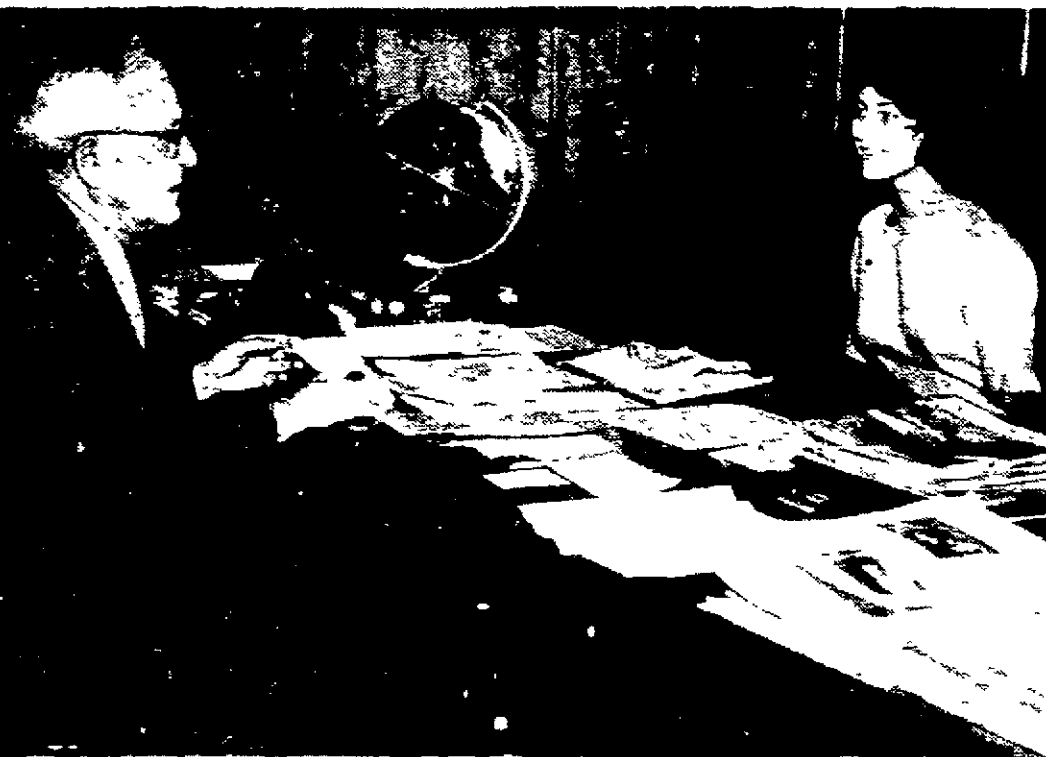

Teachers of grades kindergarten through six reported a total of 686 conferences this year as compared with last year's 536, an increase of 150. The junior high teachers saw 401 parents, eight more than last year.

In the high school there were 650 visits with parents. This represents the parents of 150 of the school's 369 high school students while last year the parents of 169 students attended.

This amounts to 42 per cent of the high school enrollment.

So Many Students were ordered to the principal's office at Appleton High School today that they had to wait in line. The high school hasn't had an outbreak of mayhem — Principal Herbert H. Helble set aside the day for only good students to be sent to the office. Above, Jon Goodyear shows waiting students the words he made for the student production of "Kismet" as a research project in a speech class. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Restrictions Sought on Three 'Noxious' Activities

MENASHA — Extreme restrictions upon what has been described as the "three most noxious forms of activity" — gas-rendering plants (slaughter house of Menasha), at first misinterpreted as the city's once-offered, council on the basis of whether "Green River Law," the proposed ordinance would require welfare of the City of Menasha council to approve construction is jeopardized.

of any of the "three noxious activities" before a building permit can be issued.

The ordinance reads: "Before building permits are issued for the construction of gasoline stations, rendering plants or property used for used car lots, it will be necessary to obtain a permit from the common council. Such permit will be granted or denied by the common council on the basis of whether it is in the health, morals and safety of the City of Menasha."

Shareholders to Gather at Neopit This Saturday

NEOPIT — The third annual meeting for shareholders of Menominee Enterprises Inc., the tribe's business corporation, will be here Saturday.

Menominee Indian shareholders will meet at 1 p.m. in the St. Anthony School gymnasium.

One of the main items of business will be reports from Leo V. Bodine, corporation president who is resigning effective Dec. 31, and other company officers. They will review the company's operations in forestry, lumber Omro, Horican and other northern communities will offer development of Menominee County's 234,000 acres over the year ending last Sept. 30.

Elect Members

Other business will include election of one of seven members of the Menominee Voting Trust, which casts ballots for shareholders in naming the company's board of directors and officers.

The term presently held by George W. Kenote, Neopit, assistant to Bodine, is expiring. Kenote is one of four Menominees serving on the trustee board. A tribal member will be elected to succeed him.

Other trustee board members, are M. W. Grignon, chairman, George Pecore and Hilary Waukau, all of Menominee County, and state forester John Beale, Madison; Judge William Moser, Milwaukee, and former State Sen. William Trinke, Racine.

Waupaca Treasurer Dead at 62

WAUPACA — Leonard J. Stadler, 62, Waupaca County treasurer since 1925, died about 6:30 a.m. today at Waupaca after a month's illness.

Stadler was born Dec. 29, 1900, in Seymour. He was a member of Manawa Council, Knights of Columbus.

Survivors include the widow, two sons, four brothers, five sisters, and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at St. Mary Magdalene Catholic Church with burial in the parish cemetery.

Friends may call at the Holy Family Home after 3:30 p.m. Friday.

Fur Association Schedules Fall Sale at New London

NEW LONDON — The Wisconsin Muskrat and Beaver Fur Association, Inc., will hold its annual fall fur sale here Dec. 14 at 515 N. Water Street.

Hubert Lehman, association secretary and fur committee chairman, said between $75,000 and $100,000 worth of raw pelts are expected to be auctioned off. Buyers from major fur houses in Madison, Wausau and Green Bay will be present.

Trappers are not required to be members of the association to offer furs for sale, Lehman said. A registration fee of $1 is assessed the trappers, regardless of how many furs they have for sale.

Grading and fur inspection will start at 7 a.m. and continue until noon. The auction will begin at 1 p.m. Trappers from New London, Oshkosh, Shiocton, Winneconne, Berlin, and other northern communities will offer furs.

Most of the furs will be muskrat with some mink, coon and fox. A spring sale also is sponsored by the association and at that time beavers and other animals are among the furs put on the auction block.

Staley Again Has Firm Hand on NFO

BY RON SPEER

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—Over Lee Staley was in firm control of the leadership of the National Farmers Organization today after his chief critic withdrew his charges during a long and heated head-to-head debate.

Robert Casper of Winterset, head of a group of insurgents which has sharply criticized Staley's policies as head of the NFO, said he was willing to retract all complaints "and eat crow."

But there were indications that the three and one-half hour battle at the national convention between the one-time friends may not have closed the split that has developed within the organization.

Shook Hands
After Staley and Casper shook hands delegates argued bitterly among themselves a first fight almost broke out in the Minnesota delegation.

During the long debate Casper repeated his earlier charges that Staley ran the NFO "like a dictator," that finances were not properly handled and in policy emphasizing all-out holding actions was shortsighted and causing old members of the organization to lose faith.

Staley denied all the charges. Casper volunteered to take a lie detector test if Staley would do so to find out which one of us is lying.

Staley said he had no faith in lie detector tests and did not feel they were needed "because Bob hasn't proved a single one of his charges."

Casper, who faced the generally pro-Staley delegates alone, was near tears when he finally conceded defeat and promised to work for the unity of the NFO.

A former national vice president, Casper said he would remain in the organization if he could but several delegates later took the floor and urged that he and other members of his group be ousted.

Assures Re-election
Casper's withdrawal virtually assured Staley's election to a ninth term as president today.

The only announced candidate against Staley was Forrest Nave, 57, Lexington, Mo., farmer who served on the national board of directors in 1956 but has not been active nationally since then.

Although much of Wednesday's program was taken up by the controversy, Vince Rossiter, banker from Hartington, Neb., and U.S. Rep. Alvin O'Konski, R-Wis., addressed the estimated 7,000 delegates in the evening before Staley and Casper began their debate. Nearly all of the delegates were still there when the debate ended.

Christine Keeler

Before Judge Again

LONDON (AP)—Christine Keeler 21, the leading woman in the Profumo scandal, went on trial with three other persons today, accused of trying to frame one of her Negro ex-lovers.

It was Miss Keeler's fourth appearance before a judge in London's Old Bailey, the central criminal court, but her first as a defendant. She could get 23 years in prison if convicted.

On trial with Miss Keeler are her apartment mate, Paula Hamilton-Marshall, 23, their housekeeper, Mrs. Olive Brookler, 36, and Rudolph Fenton, 39, a West Indian.

The three women are charged with committing perjury during the trial of Jamaican jazz singer Alvin Aarons (Lucky) Gordon and with conspiring to subvert the course of justice. Fenton is charged only with conspiracy.

All four have pleaded innocent.

Home Burns

KENOSHA (AP)—A Kenosha couple and their six children were left homeless early today when fire destroyed their one and a half story frame home.

No injuries were reported after the blaze swept the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jensen. Fire Chief Jerome Gumbinger, who estimated loss at more than $4,000, said the fire was caused by an overheated furnace.

No Doubt Laird To be Head of GOP Platform

Committee Chairman Says Announcement In 'Week or Two'

Post-Crescent News Service

BY FRANCES MCKUSICK

WASHINGTON—Although no formal announcement has been made as yet, it is "safe to speculate" that Rep. Melvin R. Laird, R., Marshfield, will be chosen chairman of the Republican Platform Committee for the national convention next year.

These were the words of Rep. William E. (Bill) Miller, chairman of the national committee, who indicated that the "formal" announcement would come within a week or two.

Miller said the procedure in selecting a platform chairman is this: He, Miller, as national chairman, will submit Laird's name to the national committee, which, in turn will vote on it. Apparently there is little doubt in Miller's mind that the committee will approve his recommendation.

Refused Comment
Laird has consistently refused to comment on the possibility of his becoming chairman. He felt that this was up to Mr. Miller.

In the meantime, Rep. Gerald R. Ford, Michigan, chairman of the Republican Campaign Committee said that "Mel will make an excellent platform chairman."

Rep. John W. Byrnes, R. Green Bay, chairman of the house policy committee, said that Laird was the "logical person to become platform chairman."

"Mel demonstrated his ability and capacity to handle platform matters when he was made co-chairman of the committee during the last convention," Byrnes said. "He is the first person one would consider."

Roosevelt, undersecretary of commerce, praised Johnson in a speech at a ceremony marking the 60th anniversary of the Commerce Department.

Rothwell Says School Tax Load May be Eased

MADISON (AP)—Angus Rothwell, state superintendent of public instruction, said Wednesday the tax burden resulting from increased school population will be eased in five or six years.

In a report prepared for the Legislature, Rothwell said that the number of high school graduates in Wisconsin probably would level off after 1964.

As a result, he said, the large school population which has resulted in additional taxes in recent years will become part of the wage earning class and contribute to the support of education of others.

Rothwell said, however, that state aid to schools cannot be held at their present level because "people demand a better job in our schools, a better product and better teachers."

"If the state does not provide school aids," the superintendent said, "the property taxpayer will have to bear the burden alone." He said that currently 49 per cent of all property taxes in the state are for school purposes.

Oswald Investigative Group Holds Meeting

BY STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—A member of the presidential commission investigating President Kennedy's assassination said today the bipartisan body should leave "a detailed report for the people behind us."

The commission, headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren, held its first meeting today to set up machinery and procedures for its top-level inquiry.

Rep. Hale Boggs, D-La., one of four members of Congress named to the commission by President Johnson, told a reporter:

"I don't want the same situation that we have now, with a play running on Broadway with the theme: Who shot Abraham Lincoln?"

Boggs said he could not say whether the commission should hold public hearings. This presumably is among the questions on the agenda of the meeting.

A presidential order empowers the commission to "evaluate all available information" on the shooting in Dallas and to conduct "any further investigation it deems desirable." Johnson is expected to turn over to the group the exhaustive report now being prepared by the FBI.

Although this report was understood to be close to completion, FBI agents in Dallas were still probing for evidence on the accused assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald.

High Case Load At Employment Relations Board

Chairman May Ask For More Money And Case Workers

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Morris Slavney, chairman of the Wisconsin Employment Relations Board, said Wednesday that if giving Italy a four-party coalition government continues, the agency will have to ask for an additional appropriation and more help.

He said the largest number of pending cases in history was pushing the board further behind schedule each week. The board started December with 132 active cases pending, according to Slavney, who said that figure is more than 60 per cent of the average backlog.

"November was the busiest month ever for filing cases," said the chairman. "We received 51 cases during the month, which is exceptional for this time of the year."

Slavney and two commissioners—Arvid Anderson and Zel Rice—make up the board. They are assisted by five staff mediators who also conduct hearings.

Slavney said the appropriation for the current biennium provided for pay increases but no new employees.

Russians Release 2 Dutch Seamen

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union Wednesday released two Dutch sailors imprisoned 2½ years on charges of spying for NATO. They were put aboard a Dutch airliner for the trip home.

The sailors, Lou de Jager, 27, and Evert Reydon, 31, had been serving 13-year terms. They appeared in good health and said they were well treated during confinement in the same cell at a prison in Vladimir.

The two were arrested Aug. 20, 1961, while traveling by car near the Polish frontier. Soviet authorities said they were convicted of collecting espionage information for NATO on the spot. His daughter announced here today.

New Italian Premier, Center-Left Cabinet Take Oaths of Office

BY EUGENE LEVIN

ROME (AP)—Premier Aldo Moro and his new center-left Cabinet were sworn in today before President Antonio Segni, said Wednesday that if giving Italy a four-party coalition government continues, the agency will have to ask for an additional appropriation and more help.

It was Italy's 25th post-Fascist government. As the premier took the oath before President Antonio Segni, there was speculation whether the uneasy alliance patched together with such difficulty could stand much strain.

Formation of the four-party coalition ended a political crisis that began in April when the ruling Christian Democrats suffered a setback and the Communists gained a million votes in the election of a new Parliament.

Before Election
For 13 months before the election, Christian Democratic Premier Amintore Fanfani headed a center-left government supported by the Socialists, but the latter stayed out of the Cabinet. The election results strengthened a Socialist faction that wanted the party to return to its traditional alliance with Italy's big Communist party.

But Socialist leader Pietro Nenni finally brought the party back into alliance with the Christian Democrats. Other parties in the coalition include Giuseppe Saragat's Democratic Socialists and the Republicans. They were the other two serious but a blood clot in a leg members of Fanfani's coalition could not be treated conveniently. The new government is pledged to support the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

An Allied spokesman said Schirach's condition was not serious but a blood clot in a leg could not be treated conveniently. Schirach, 56, is due for release in 1966.

(foreign affairs and to begin new economic planning.

Moro, a 47-year-old law professor and Christian Democratic leader, is expected to survive his first parliamentary test when he seeks a vote of confidence next week.

The four parties hold 385 of the 629 seats in the Chamber of Deputies, a majority of 141. But Socialist defections may reduce the majority.

The Christian Democrats—Italy's largest party—dominate the 26-member Cabinet with 16 posts, including the premiership. The Socialists have six members, the Democratic Socialists three and the Republicans one.

Nenni, who returned his Stalin Peace Prize to the Russians after they crushed the 1956 Hungarian revolt, was named deputy premier.

One key economic post, budget minister, went to Socialist Antonio Gliolitti, a former Communist party functionary.

Nazi Youth Leader Taken to Hospital

BERLIN (AP)—Baldur von Schirach, former Nazi youth leader serving 29 years for war crimes, has been taken from Spandau Prison to a hospital for treatment of a circulatory condition.

An Allied spokesman said Schirach's condition was not serious but a blood clot in a leg could not be treated conveniently. Schirach, 56, is due for release in 1966.

Stove Dangerous,
Painting Suggested

A state jail inspector has urged that Outagamie County seek more room for its county jail facilities, provide the Huber law officer with office space and make minor changes in the present jail to provide more security.

Vernon A. Verhulst, inspector for the State Department of Public Welfare, who conducted an inspection of the county jail facilities in November, also warned that present cooking facilities in the jail could be dangerous to prisoners as well as county employees working there.

Verhulst also said plans for replacement of the jail facilities "do not provide space to meet the needs" of the county. He said the plans which the county has sketched after more than one year of study will make it difficult to maintain security and provide proper administration.

Larger Facilities
The county should consider larger dormitory and Huber law facilities and better juvenile quarters, Verhulst reported in his statement to Alvin Fulcer, Outagamie County board chairman.

A stove being used in the jail kitchen has been leaking gas, Verhulst noted, and should be replaced. He said the odor of gas is noticeable "early in the mornings." Jail officials said that a new stove had been requested but has not yet been purchased.

Protective screens should be replaced, Verhulst said, to prevent contraband being passed into the jail. He also suggested that certain parts of the present jail be painted.

He added that records of the Huber law officer, Raymond Klein, could be maintained in a more efficient manner if they were prepared away from "hustle and bustle" of the jail office.

Briton Opposes Nonaggression Pact by NATO

BY PATRICK MCNULTY
PARIS (AP)—A British Cabinet member has opposed any nonaggression pact between the Atlantic Alliance and Warsaw Treaty powers that would weaken the Western position on Germany.

Speaking to a meeting of the Western European Union Assembly, Lord Carrington said of the proposal frequently put forward by the Communist bloc: "We would not accept any arrangement which enhanced the position of the authorities of the Soviet Zone of Germany."

Lord Carrington, government spokesman in the House of Lords, said any nonaggression pact between the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the Warsaw countries would not in itself guarantee that the Allied access to West Berlin would not be threatened.

Speaking of the assassination of President Kennedy, Lord Carrington said: "His death is a blow to us all. The best memorial we can build to his memory is to work for a Europe united in its aims, political and economic, and united, too, with the United States in its determination to stand together in the cause of peace."

The union is a consulting body composed of Britain and the six Common Market nations of Belgium, France, Germany, Italy, Luxembourg and the Netherlands. It is concerned with defense and economic questions.

Ike May be Pulled Into '64 Campaign

BY JACK BELL
WASHINGTON AP)—The political upheaval caused by the assassination of President Kennedy may project former President Eisenhower actively into the search for a 1964 GOP presidential nominee.

Eisenhower has disclaimed any desire to become a kingmaker. But associates who have talked to him since Kennedy's death say the former president recognizes that the Republican situation has changed so rapidly as to invite efforts to get the kind of moderate candidate he believes can win.

Eisenhower has opposed public discussion of political matters at this time. He was reported to have suggested it might be well for Republicans to preserve an air of bipartisanship longer into the new year than they had planned by postponing a series of scheduled Jan. 29 closed-circuit television fund-raising dinners.

Treasury Bare
With his treasury bare, however, national chairman William E. Miller ruled that the dinners will go on as scheduled.

Eisenhower, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon are to be among the speakers.

Before Kennedy's death, the Republican nomination scramble was developing rapidly into a two-man contest between Goldwater and Rockefeller. It was a poorly kept secret that Eisenhower didn't view this prospect with any enthusiasm, but there wasn't much he could do about it.

The death of Kennedy and the elevation of Lyndon B. Johnson to the presidency changed things. Goldwater supporters had figured their man had a chance of beating Kennedy by carrying the South and some of the more conservative states in the Midwest and West. Now he would be facing a Texas president with an image more conservative than Kennedy's.

Goldwater Decision
If Goldwater decides to get into the race—and there now is some doubt that he will — it probably would take him time to work up the same head of steam against Johnson that he maintained in flailing away at Kennedy's policies.

The substitution of Johnson for Kennedy weakened Goldwater's position in the South, where he was strongest. Ordinarily the Democratic change would have been expected to help Rockefeller, promising Republicans a better chance of carrying New York.

But even some of the governor's supporters concede privately that his political fortunes do not seem to be recovering from his divorce and remarriage.

Suitable Candidate
In such a situation there is a feeling that if Eisenhower and his friends of the National Republican Citizens Committee can find a suitable candidate in the next couple of months the way would be open for the type of buildup that made Wendell T. Willkie the nominee in 1940.

Nixon, of course, remains in the forefront of possible contenders. While he has praised Nixon as well qualified, the impression remains that Eisenhower would rather turn to another for the 1964 race.

State Securities Employees Ordered to Report Investments
MADISON (AP)—A directive was issued Tuesday, aimed at preventing employees of the State Securities Department from using information available through their jobs for private investments.

The directive, by department director John K. Kyle, said that all employees will be required to report their investments to him every three months and no securities application will be assigned to a department examining holding securities in the company involved. Kyle said he will report his own holdings to the governor. He also banned "tips" to the public by employees.

Kyle said the directive was issued "to make sure that no employee involved in policy determinations will participate in any of the decisions in which personal investments or interests are involved."

Arguments on Politics Show Misconceptions

Party Issues More Important Than Any Personalities

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — The saddest commentary on the fluctuating trends of political thought in America is the way the politicians themselves have been reacting currently to the question of what effect the sudden succession of Lyndon Johnson to the presidency will have on Republican chances to win next year's election.

Again and again it is being said that the removal of President Kennedy from the political scene and the presence now of a southerner in the White House will adversely affect Sen. Goldwater's chances, for instance, of getting the Republican nomination since he was expected to be able to carry many southern states. It also is even being argued that, because Mr. Johnson has something of a conservative background, it might behoove the Republicans to take another look at Gov. Rockefeller, on the theory that he would present a "liberal" image to the voters.

But the mere mention of these arguments emphasizes a misconception. It is that the country is presumed to have suddenly lost its basic attitude on public questions and that the eulogies about a departed president represent a turnaround in political fundamentals. Congress itself, it will be noted, gives no signs of such a change.

No Opportunity

President Johnson, of course, has not had an opportunity as yet to express himself in detail on some of the major issues of the day. His pronouncements have been necessarily general and implicit rather than explicit. For he himself hardly knows just what alignments he may face on certain issues.

The Republicans, however, know as much today as they have known in the past two years and 11 months about the policies of the administration elected to office last time. They know the vulnerable points in national politics. While political speakers cannot with propriety blame a man who has passed from this life, they can insist on defining to what extent President Johnson apparently agrees with or digresses from previous policies.

During the Senate debate on "civil rights," for example, the President will be confronted with arguments on which he will have to take a public stand. The politicians will be watching to see what electoral votes may be affected by any position adopted by Mr. Johnson.

Election Facts

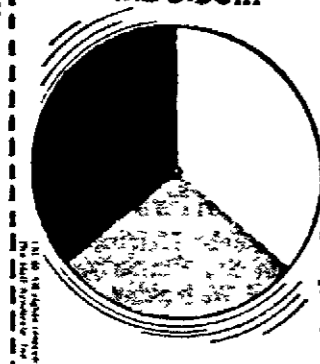

The facts about the election of November 1960 have not vanished from political recollection. It will be remembered that, even though Mr. Johnson was put on the ticket in 1960 by Mr. Kennedy in order to gain strength in the south and in border states, the electoral votes of Florida, Virginia, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Kentucky, Tennessee, along with half of Alabama's votes—a total of 65—party lines because they care more about fundamental principles than they do about slogans or the glamor of political personalities.

One thing seems certain. At

New Book on Odd Facts Prompts Charlie to Quote a Few Records

BY CHARLES HOUSE
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Back in the distant days when I was not in this corner at all but was preparing to be, I learned that most people are interested in extremes — the longest the smallest, the deepest, the oldest, the best, the worst.

I learned, for example, that the very first person to accomplish some specific deed—either fine or foolish — he was infinitely more important than that, say, the 27th to do so. As a student and later as a budding reporter, I found that by-lines were easier to get if a story began "the largest creature ever to live in the world was the..." or, "the smallest animal in the world is..."

Superlatives are, of course dangerous just as generalities are dangerous and probably inexact. Hence the work of proving that this event or that deed was "the most" of anything presented problems for the low whose works weds him to accuracy. Research often became monumental and time-consuming.

The largest flying creature now, today, a couple of fellows on the earth was the ex-lows have assembled a book on tinct winged lizard pteranodon, records — about what is first, which had an overall wingspan biggest, smallest, etc. Called of 27 feet though it probably "The Guinness Book of World Records," the book was compiled by twin brothers, Norris and Ross McWhirter, Englishmen who estimate their new tome contains upwards of 20,000 "facts." It may become a dandy argument settler if nothing else.

Here are some random samplings of the new book which is available in both hard and soft covers:

The smallest animal is a species of shrew that lives along the Mediterranean. It is only one and a half inches long and weighs a mere 2 1/2 grams. The smallest sea mammal is the sea otter which weighs 85 pounds.

Test Pilot Says 'Flying Bathub' Handles Great

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—Air Force Col Charles Yeager, first man to break the sound barrier, piloted a rock-like "Flying Bathub" to earth, then announced, "She handles great."

Yeager made his first flight Tuesday in the experimental M2, a boat-shaped re-entry vehicle. At flight's end Yeager predicted the craft may become the "space chute" of the future. The M2 looks like a bullet cut in half with the pilot canopy on the top side. It was developed by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration as a vehicle to ferry men or equipment back to earth from space stations.

Yeager, 42, was towed to an altitude of 9,000 feet at the end of a cable, then cut loose and allowed to drift to earth at a rate of descent of 4,000 feet a minute. The wingless M2, with its round-bottomed hull, provided air resistance to keep it from falling like a rock. A few feet above ground, Yeager tilted the M2's nose in a flare-out to reduce his speed to 80 m.p.h. Small tail surfaces on either side gave extra stability and directional control.

The most taxed country is round-bottomed Holland where an unmarried man with a $5,600 income per year pays 39.9 per cent in tax above ground. Yeager tilted the M2's nose in a flare-out to reduce his speed to 80 m.p.h. Small tail surfaces on either side gave extra stability and directional control.

The most expensive drink is Napoleon brandy: a vintner in Middlesex, England, sold a bottle for $2,800 in 1963.

The busiest road in the world is the 22.6 mile long, $192 million Harbor Freeway in Los Angeles. On an average day about 219,000 vehicles use it.

Veteran Atlas Mill Workers Will be Guests at Dinner

James J. Shipman, vice president and director of Research and Development, will bring the greetings of Kimberly-Clark management to long-service members of the Atlas Mill and their guests at the annual Quarter Century Club gathering Saturday night at Alex's Manor House.

While Atlas Mill has no new 25-year employees this year, it will recognize 10 employees who completed 30 years with the company this year and two who completed 35 years. Each will receive a savings bond and a pin imprinted with the years of service.

The 30-year Veterans are Christian De Leeuw, Richard T. Bongers, Carl H. Peeters, Frederick R. Tank, James A. Schroeder, Leslie A. Weryle, Leslie G. Gebheim, James V. McGinnis, Walter G. Miller and Orson H. Kransusch. The two 35-year men to be honored are Herman C. Kollath and David E. Mulen.

C. C. Williams, Atlas mill manager, will emcee the program following the 6 p.m. reception and 6:45 dinner. Special entertainment will feature barbershop quartet singing by "The Captivators" Carl Schumacher, William Goetz, James Vander Pas and Ronald Hietpas.

The Atlas Mill gathering concludes the Kimberly-Clark round of 1963 recognition dinners in the Fox River Valley. Thirty-seven new Quarter Century employees were inducted into Fox Valley clubs this year and 216 other long-service veterans were honored.

The best-selling book in history, aside from the Bible, is Dr. Benjamin Spock's "The Common Sense Book of Baby and Child Care," which, since publishing in 1946, has sold more than 14,500,000 copies. In fiction, the world's best-selling novel is Grace Metalious' "Peyton Place" with a total of 11,000,000 copies.

Bake it a happy holiday

BY LILLIAN MACKESY
Post-Crescent Food Editor

Fruit cakes, plum puddings and Christmas breads long have been a tradition of the Christmas season. And what better way to send a cheery greeting to a treasured friend or neighbor than to bake a Christmas specialty and wrap it up in festive trimmings? What better way to welcome holiday callers than to concoct your best tried and true recipes for their enjoyment?

Christmas baking brings pleasure to the family whether it's in the form of cookies, stollen or any other traditional food that's become a part of the annual festivities. Christmas foods have been part and parcel of the yuletide for centuries . . . and this is the time of year when the homemaker can shine in her kitchen and bring real joy to all those around her.

One of the best modern recipes for Christmas giving is the one today for Fresh Cranberry Bread. The ruby red berry is coarsely chopped and combined with orange juice and rind and chopped nuts to make a wonderful bread. It's a recipe that any friend would cherish because the bread is one of those delicious, easily made ones that always turns out right.

Another that makes a fine special dessert either for entertaining or gift giving is Oriental Fruit Cake. This is truly elegant in looks and ingredients. It's really two fruit cakes centered with a white cake layer and a superb citrus fruit filling in between.

Then, in the Christmas pudding category are the two recipes . . . Steamed Raisin Pudding and Sugar 'n' Spice Pudding. They both make individual or large puddings. Both are excellent and very different types. The Sugar 'n' Spice Christmas Pudding is remarkable in that it's a no-bake recipe that goes to form en route.

Colorful Candy Canes dress up the individual steamed raisin puddings above. Below is a delicious no-bake version of the traditional Christmas dessert.

Coarsely Chopped Fresh cranberries, orange juice, grated rind and chopped nuts give tang and crunchiness to this bread that makes an excellent gift from the kitchen. It's the kind of bread that goes well with any meal or snack. The recipe is a blue ribbon winner in a national contest.

White Cake centers the two fruit cake layers in this unusual Oriental Fruit Cake that's rich with spices, nuts and a lemon-orange filling. Make it ahead, frost it and then store in an air-tight box when frosting is set.

Beef, Pork Abundant In December

Good supplies of both beef and pork are in store for December, with pork prices lower than a year ago at this time. Beef prices may drop further before the New Year.

Especially good beef buys may be found in sirloin, porterhouse and round steaks, rump roasts and ground beef. In many retail stores pork chops, rib and butt roasts and loins are good values this weekend.

From now until the end of the year, turkeys remain good values. Broiler-fryers also are good ways to stretch food dollars in many areas.

In holiday baking, plan to use onions. Other good buys are pecans. This year's crop — a broccoli, cabbage, carrots, celery, record one — is four times as many, green peppers, sweet potatoes large as last year's and con-tees, winter squash and lettuce.

Considerably above average. California almond production is almost twice as large as last year's crop.

The filbert crop is larger than in 1962 but it is about 20 percent below the five-year average. You'll find adequate supplies of filberts available though. The Oregon and Washington walnut crop is about nine percent above the five-year average but slightly smaller than the 1962 crop.

From now through mid-1964 expect smaller supplies of fresh and canned fruits and frozen juices. As more consumers demand fruits, count on a price rise.

Include grapefruit, apples, bananas and tangerines in your early December meals. Both avocados and cranberries are available in plentiful supply. Top vegetable choices this weekend include potatoes and onions. Other good buys are pecans. This year's crop — a broccoli, cabbage, carrots, celery, record one — is four times as many, green peppers, sweet potatoes large as last year's and con-tees, winter squash and lettuce.

Today's Etiquette

BY LOUISE DAVIS

WHITE TIE INCORRECT

Dear Louise: When my son made inquiries about renting a tuxedo to wear as an usher at a wedding, he was told that the bow tie should be white to distinguish him from the groom. I question this but wonder if it might be something new. Please advise at your earliest convenience.

Davis

Louise Davis Answers: An usher doesn't have to be distinguished from the bridegroom even if they are identical twins! The rental outfit doesn't know its rules and shouldn't give out such information. I hope you or your son can do some convincing. Meanwhile, tell your son to insist on a black bow tie and I hope the best man and the Rev. R. M. Paulson and other ushers will do the same. Although the black tie is standard, maroon is acceptable.

CO-ED'S QUANDARY Dear Louise: We are college girls who will be going home for the holidays. What is the most tactful way to handle a situation in which a girl doesn't know if a boy she dates fairly regularly plans to give her a gift? Should she give him one anyway? Should she have one in reserve in case he gives her one? Or should she just accept graciously if he happens to give her something?

Louise Davis Answers: I recommend that you all just send the boys greeting cards. If you receive a gift, accept it graciously without the slightest qualm or embarrassment. Re-mind the boy now and then how much you are enjoying the "doo-dad" he gave you for Christmas. Such a remark would give him great pleasure and satisfaction.

Spinach in Cheese A little cooked chopped spinach leftover? It's delicious added to cheddar cheese soup — homemade or canned.

Working Wife Carries Double Responsibility

BY JEAN SPRAIN WILSON (the wife off to work?" NEW YORK (AP) — If Richard S. MacQuown were to write a report on the status of women in the business world, it would probably sound like a soap opera or sick magazine fiction. The chapter titles might read like this:

"Is sex appeal an aid in furthering a career?" Or "To whom should the ambitious working girl be loyal, her family or the boss?" Or, "Can this marriage be saved by shipping

As such he has had a number of opportunities to observe the emotional dilemmas of the modern working girl which Assistant Labor Secretary Esther Peterson and her committee, in preparing their status of women report, may have overlooked.

Downward Drag
The essence of MacQuown's verbal report is that despite her battle for equal job and advancement opportunities, the working woman, and the married one especially, has the weight of the world on her back while climbing the ladder to the executive ranks. There is no easy solution to her problems. "Getting a job is easy," the affable, articulate Scotsman reassured. "It's getting ahead on the job that is hard."

Kappa Alpha Theta Alumnae Hold Christmas Party

Kappa Alpha Theta Alumnae held their annual Christmas potluck supper and auction recently at the home of Mrs. George Banta III, 1520 Palisades Drive. The Institute of Logopedics, the sorority's national philanthropy, will benefit from the auction proceeds.

Mrs. John Green, chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Elmer Root, Mrs. Alfred Oliver, Mrs. Dale Williams, Mrs. H. B. Kellogg and Mrs. Vernon Smith. Founder's Day will be observed Jan. 20.

Curried Sour Cream

Add a suspicion of curry powder to sour cream and use as a topping for bowls of hot cream of tomato soup.

Oh, For the Dough
These conflicts may have a lot to do with what appears to be a high incidence of divorce among successful women. Yet

MacQuown muses philosophically that their hard won financial independence may lower their domestic tolerance levels, and that indeed there may be a number of envious women trapped in "marriages of quiet despair."

There is still another side to the picture. MacQuown believes that many dull marriages might be saved if the wife would go to work. "She might become more tolerant of and interested in her husband's problems. She might be more interesting herself. They might have something to talk about again." Yet there is a slight danger. The wife who goes off to the office might not come home one day.

Painting Peels Off Wood Trim

BY ROGER C. WHITMAN

Q: We have a problem with the paint peeling off the wood trim on our brick house. It has to be painted annually, although we use a top quality trim paint. How can this be remedied?

A: The usual cause of peeling paint is moisture working its way through from underneath and pushing the paint off the surface. The window flashings may be faulty, the trim may not be tightly joined to the brick, or the joints of the frames themselves may have opened. All these points should be checked and any openings, no matter how small, tightly caulked, using a caulking compound and caulking gun. Be sure the surface is absolutely clean and free of all trace of soot, grime, etc., before applying any paint.

Q: We want to get wall-to-wall carpeting for a large entrance hall and install it ourselves. How can we be sure it will lie smooth?

A: Professionals usually use what is called a knee-kicker to stretch the carpeting properly and prevent its wrinkling later. The dealer from whom you purchase the carpeting may lend this to you and instruct you in its use.

Q: We want to repaint our living room. The walls now have a plastic latex paint on them. What type of paint should we use?

A: Any other good quality latex paint can be applied over the present paint. If you plan to put a lighter color over a dark finish, I suggest using a pigmented sealer for a first coat. Be sure the paint surface is thoroughly cleaned of any trace of dust, wax, grease, etc., and any gloss dulled before applying the new coating.

Q: We have a stone front open fireplace in our basement recreation room. I accidentally scorched the front of it. What solution can I use to clean it?

A: Cleaning and etching preparations (not containing muriatic acid) for use on stone and masonry surfaces are available at masonry supplies and some large hardware stores; follow manufacturer's label instructions for use carefully. Or scrub with powdered pumice and water to remove the surface soot. To remove any deeper scorching, apply a paste made of powdered whiting and a nonflammable liquid spot remover, being sure basement is well ventilated while using spot remover. When paste is dry, replace with fresh. Repeat treatment, if necessary.

Fighting About Problems That Don't Exist Quite Unreasonable

BY ANN LANDERS
DEAR ANN LANDERS: Last night my husband started to tell me how great his father is. After about five beers his eyes got sort of watery and he said, "If my father ever got too sick to work I'd hock everything in this house to take care of him."
I told my husband if he so much as sold one stick of furniture I would take the children and move out. After all, I worked six years before the children came and every dime went into this house. It's just as much my house as his, and I'm not about to let him hock things to help out his dad.
We got into a big argument and I'd like you to tell me if I am right or wrong. Thank you.
—Josie

Dear Josie: Why waste time and energy arguing about something that hasn't happened, and probably never will?

It would make a lot more sense if your husband helped his dad work out a program whereby he saved a part of his weekly check. This beats fighting about problems which don't exist.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Last week my obituary appeared in the newspaper. Of course I did not die, but the person who did die had the same name as mine, and the same middle initial. He was two years older than I am. I have lived in this city for less than two years. Most of my friends and colleagues know very little about my family.

My wife received several cards of condolence and a few hand-written notes. Eight or ten people phoned her to say they were sorry. Naturally she told those who called I was alive and kicking. But what should she do about the cards and notes? She feels it would be stupid to do anything about them. I say if these people were good enough to express sympathy she should respond by letting them know I am all right. Please advise us.
Pulse Normal
Dear Norm: The folks who wrote should be notified by telephone—and I hope your wife will do it promptly—before someone who wrote a condolence note bumps into you on the street and has a coronary.
DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm 16 years old, but today I feel like 90. It's too late for advice, but maybe my experience will prevent some other girl from making the same mistake.
I live in a city where there is a state university. Any high school sophomore who can get a date from a guy at the university is considered pretty special. I was thrilled when a 21-year-old junior asked me out. He was handsome and on the football team besides. My success really went to my head.
I figured since this guy was older that hand-holding in the movies and a goodnight kiss at the door would be kid stuff to him so I decided I'd do anything and everything to keep him interested. Believe me this was the biggest mistake of my life.

After he got what he wanted he dropped me like a hot coal. Now I feel like a cheap tramp. Just tell the girls for me, Ann, that once you become a conquest instead of a challenge the boy loses interest.—Dumb Me
Dear You: I'll agree you were pretty dumb but your letter indicates you've smartened up considerably. Thanks for writing and I hope your newfound wisdom will be reflected in your future conduct.
Ann Landers' frank and informative new book, "Teen-Agers and Sex" ($2.95) is now available at your book store.

Christmas Meat Pie is a recipe borrowed from the French-Canadians. It's filled with ground pork, veal and salt pork and after being blended with savory seasonings, the meat is baked in a tender crust.

This Meat Pie Recipe From French Canada

Our neighboring French Canadians make a wonderful Christmas Meat Pie that's worth borrowing for the holiday season. The meat is abundant and flavorful. The pastry is tender and this hearty meat pie makes an excellent main dish, served hot or cold, for a holiday buffet supper.

There's a savory blend of ground meats in this dish and they are seasoned with a hint of garlic, minced onion, celery seed and cloves. As the diner forks into it, he also finds the unexpected tang of apples. That is because applesauce is mixed through the meat to add both its flavor and moistness to the pie.

Add filling and spread evenly. Roll out remaining crust and cover pie. Make a few slits in crust to release steam; trim to fit; moisten and crimp edges. Roll trimmings and cut in holiday designs; arrange on top of crust. Bake in 425-degree oven 20 minutes. Reduce heat to 350 degrees; continue baking an additional 30 or 40 minutes, until crust is golden brown.

TAFFY'S TIPS

By Dolly Martin

Loose bulky sweaters add a great deal to a well-coordinated wardrobe, and it is wonderful to have several to mix and match with skirts, dresses and jumpers. So, why not try knitting yourself a few extra? The simple knit one-purl two stitch is the easiest to do. The instruction that usually comes with the yarn is so easy to follow you probably could figure it out with one quick reading. However, if you need help on finishing the top, bottom and sleeves, mother could surely give you a hand. And, if you get so carried away with your stitching you forget to stop in time . . . don't fret . . . you could always give it to father for a Christmas present. (Copyright, 1963)

Dessert Topping

Whipped cream flavored with rum makes a delightful topping; plaques cut to proper size and for a cherry dessert. Use a shape also make attractive tree quarter cup of confectioners sugar, a quarter teaspoon of vanilla and a tablespoon of light rum to a cup of heavy cream.

Greeting cards posted to plaques cut to proper size and shape also make attractive tree decorations. Hang the plaques from the tree on colored string and a light wire strung through a drilled hole.

CHRISTMAS MEAT PIE

2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup lard
1 egg, beaten
Cold Milk

1 pound pork
1 pound veal
1/2 pound salt pork
1 clove garlic, minced
1/2 cup minced onion
2 cups applesauce
1/2 teaspoon celery seed
Pinch ground cloves
Salt, pepper to taste

Mix flour and salt; cut in butter and lard until mixture resembles cornmeal in texture. Add beaten egg and enough milk to make a firm but easy-to-handle dough. Chill for 30 minutes. Grind . . . or have butcher do it . . . together pork, veal and salt pork. The meat must be ground, not chopped. Turn meat into large heated skillet; cook about 10 minutes in own fat. Add garlic and onion; continue cooking, stirring, until mixture is almost dry. Add remaining ingredients. Cover and cook over low heat for about 40 minutes, stirring occasionally. Cool to room temperature. Mixture should be very thick. Roll out about two-thirds of the chilled pastry; line a flaring or pie plate with dough.

Tree Plaques

Mother Won't Let Daughter Bring Kitten Along to Bed

BY DR. EVE JONES

Dear Dr. Jones: I gave my 3½-year-old daughter a kitten because she's very mean and she doesn't know how to play nicely with other children. I thought the kitten would teach her how to stop hitting and pushing. But she was getting up at night to put the kitten in bed with her. So I put the kitten outside.

Dr. Jones

Last night, she got up, unlocked the door, and ran out to get the kitten, even though it was dark in the house and outside, and past ten at night.

I want to get rid of the kitten, but my husband said I should write you first. She cried so hard when her Halloween pumpkin was broken that I'm really afraid of how she'd act if someone hurt her kitten. Would it be good or harmful to take the kitten away?

MRS. N. T. Why not let her have the kitten in bed with her? There's really nothing wrong with this and she obviously gets some comfort from being close to her kitten.

You can't expect the kitten to help your daughter learn to control her temper, though. That's a job for mothers and fathers. I'm sending you the name of a book that should help you carry out this responsibility. It should also help you eliminate the pressures that are making your daughter want to hurt others.

Dear Dr. Jones: Ever since my daughter saw a TV commercial that shows a little girl crayoning on the walls, she's been doing this, too. How can I get her to stop when she sees such a horrid example?

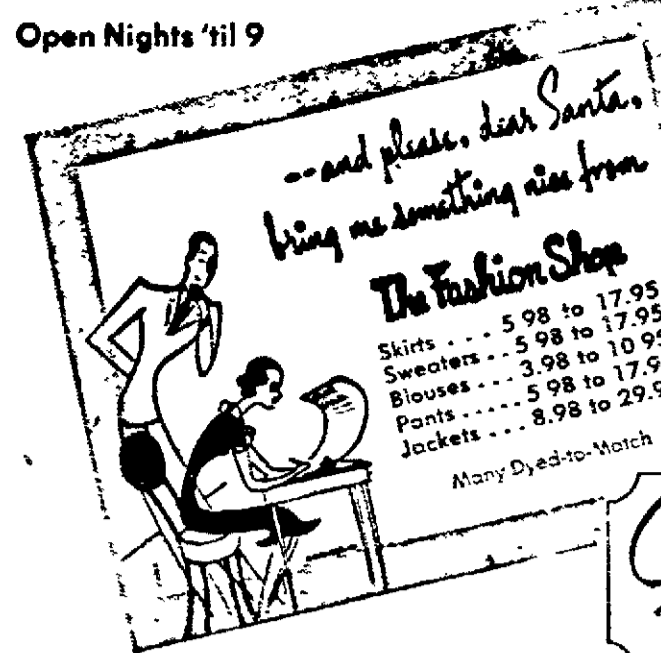

MRS. D. F. Before she watches a commercial where something even worse is going on, you'd better get back in the driver's seat.

Tell her, "No crayon marks on the walls!" If you catch her breaking this rule, take away her crayons. Tell her she may have them back when she thinks she can keep them where they belong. If she says she will, trust her — even if it's five minutes later.

Dr. Jones replies personally to each of the letters she receives from her readers. Send your question, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope, to Dr. Eve Jones, care of this newspaper.

Rum or Brandy Syrup Hard Sauce

Chop together raisins, candied fruits and pecans. Blend together butter and brown sugar until 1½ cups dark seedless raisins soft and fluffy; beat in egg and 1 cup mixed candied fruits, rum. Stir in raisin - fruit - nut mixture. Resift flour with soda, salt and spices; add to raisin mixture, stirring until well packed. Spoon into small buttered molds such as individual custard cups, pudding molds or cake pans; fill molds about two-thirds full. Cover tightly with foil; secure foil with string or rubber bands. Place on rack in large kettle. Add boiling water

Don't Overlook the ready-made bakery available this holiday season. With these on hand and ready for family or company, there'll be time to trim house and tree because food preparation time has been whittled down. Serve these examples . . . Cinnamon Nut Coffee Cake and Pecan Coffee Cake . . . with punch or other beverages.

to kettle until it comes halfway up molds. Cover pan and steam puddings in continuously boiling water about one and one-half hours. Add boiling water as needed.

Take molds from pan and remove covers. Let stand about five minutes, then turn out on serving platter. Drizzle Rum or Brandy Syrup over each pudding. Serve warm with Hard Sauce or other favorite pudding sauce. Recipe makes six to eight individual puddings.

RUM OR BRANDY SAUCE

1 cup sugar
¾ cup water
1 tablespoon lemon juice
¼ cup rum or brandy
Simmer sugar and water for five minutes. Add lemon juice and rum.

HARD SAUCE

½ cup soft butter
1½ cups sifted powdered sugar
1 tablespoon brandy (optional)

Blend together butter and powdered sugar until light and fluffy. Beat in tablespoon brandy and vanilla. Sprinkle with nutmeg.

Note: This steamed pudding may be made in a larger one-quart pudding mold, if desired, instead of in individual molds. Steam single mold three and one-half hours.

If puddings are to be served later, allow to cool after being drizzled with syrup. Wrap in foil and store in cool place. Reheat in 300-degree oven in foil wrappers for 30 to 60 minutes.

FRESH CRANBERRY BREAD

3 cups sifted all-purpose flour
3 teaspoons double acting baking powder

1½ teaspoons salt
½ teaspoon soda
½ cup shortening
1½ cups sugar
2 large eggs
¾ cup fresh orange juice
1½ tablespoons grated orange rind
¾ cup chopped nuts
2½ cups fresh cranberries, coarsely chopped

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Add soda to shortening, mixing well. Gradually blend in sugar to shortening; beat in eggs, one at a time.

Add flour mixture alternately with orange juice. Stir in orange rind, nuts and cranberries. Turn into well-greased, lightly floured loaf pan. Bake in preheated, 350-degree oven for one and one-half hours or until done. Remove from pan and cool.

ORIENTAL FRUIT CAKE

8 ounces candied fruits and peels
4 ounces candied red cherries, quartered
½ cup chopped pecans
1 cup silvered almonds
1 cup golden raisins
2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
¾ cup brandy
2½ cups sifted all-purpose flour
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon ground cloves
¼ teaspoon ground allspice
¼ teaspoon ground cinnamon
1 cup butter or margarine
5 eggs
¼ teaspoon baking soda
2 teaspoons lemon juice
White cake layer
Lemon-Orange Filling
Royal Icing
Angelica, candied cherries

Place first six ingredients in large bowl; pour one-third cup brandy over them and allow to stand for an hour. Reserve remaining brandy for later use.

Sift together flour, salt and spices. Cream butter; gradually add brown sugar and beat until light and fluffy. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well between each addition. Blend baking soda and lemon juice.

Fold into the creamed mixture the sifted dry ingredients (small amounts at a time), the marinated fruit and combined soda and lemon juice. Mix thoroughly.

Divide batter evenly into two nine-inch greased and waxed paper-lined layer cake pans. Bake in preheated, 275-degree oven for about one hour, or until done. Pour remaining third-cup brandy over top of cake while still in pans; cool five minutes in pans. Invert on cake racks, slowly peel off paper. Cool.

WHITE CAKE LAYER

1 pkg. (1 lb.-1 oz.) pound cake mix
½ cup milk
3 egg yolks
¼ cup brandy

Prepare according to package directions, substituting egg yolks for whole eggs called for on package and brandy for part of milk. Bake in greased and waxed paper-lined layer cake pan for about 40 minutes in a 325-degree oven. Cool five minutes in pan; invert on cake rack and peel off paper.

LEMON-ORANGE FILLING

½ cup cornstarch
½ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ cup water
1½ cups orange juice
¼ cup lemon juice
4 eggs yolks, beaten

Combine pie filling and marshmallows; let stand while cutting up fruit and chopping nuts. Combine all ingredients, using enough crumbs to absorb juice and to mold pudding easily; additional cracker crumbs may be necessary if pie filling is very juicy.

Pack into foil-lined four-cup mixing bowl or mold. Chill overnight or longer. Serve with whipped cream or ice cream that has been stirred to soften. Recipe makes from nine to 12 servings.

Announce Marriage

NEENAH—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Breitenbach, Pierre, S. D., former residents of Neenah, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Susan Kay, to Rudolph F. Regez, Baton Rouge, La., Sept. 20, at Baton Rouge. Mr. Regez is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Regez, Monroe.

Mr. Regez is attending law school at Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, La., and is affiliated with Sigma Chi fraternity.

1 teaspoon grated orange rind
1½ teaspoons grated lemon rind
3 tablespoons butter

Combine in saucepan the cornstarch, sugar and salt; gradually add water and juices; cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture comes to full boil. Add a little of this hot mixture to beaten egg yolks, then add egg yolks to the filling. Cook two minutes longer but do not boil. Remove from heat. Add grated rinds and butter, stirring until butter melts. Cool, stirring occasionally.

ROYAL ICING

7 egg whites
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon lemon juice
¼ teaspoon cream of tartar
2½ pounds confectioners sugar, sifted

Place all ingredients but sugar in mixing bowl; beat with electric mixer until whites are frothy. Gradually beat in sugar; continue beating until frosting is smooth and glossy.

To assemble Oriental Fruit Cake: Spread filling between three layers, placing white cake layer between two fruit cake layers. Spread thin layer of frosting over top and sides of assembled cake; allow to dry. Then spread remaining frosting over thin frosting. Decorate top of cake with cherries and angelica.

SUGAR 'N SPICE CHRISTMAS PUDDING

1 can Mince-meat Pie Filling (No. 2 can)
2 cups miniature marshmallows
1 cup candied fruit
1 cup chopped pecans
2 cups graham cracker crumbs

Combine pie filling and marshmallows; let stand while cutting up fruit and chopping nuts. Combine all ingredients, using enough crumbs to absorb juice and to mold pudding easily; additional cracker crumbs may be necessary if pie filling is very juicy.

Pack into foil-lined four-cup mixing bowl or mold. Chill overnight or longer. Serve with whipped cream or ice cream that has been stirred to soften. Recipe makes from nine to 12 servings.

Wanted: More Shelf Space!

Ideal as a gift for any member of the family is a pegboard panel (say 24" x 24") plus some of the new plastic hooks and shelves that are jiggle-proof and good looking, too.

Dan can use one for a tool rack, Mom needs one in the kitchen as a spice rack, teen-age Bill will find one handy in his bedroom study, and sister Sue can have one near her dressing table for beauty accessories.

Four such panels can be cut by your lumber dealer from a 4' x 4' panel of peg-board. He'll have the plastic fixtures and shelves, too.

Wrap each separately for a pleasant Christmas surprise.

Porch Airing Helps Sprinkled Clothes

When clothes have to be dried indoors after washing, sprinkle them as usual, pile them in a basket, and set this on an open porch for an hour or so before starting to iron. This will give the clean laundry that fresh "outdoorsy" smell which comes from outdoor line drying.

A Lovelier You

By Mary Sue Miller

No Plop, No Flop

When the feminine figure is set in motion, the most commonplace actions seem graceful and charming — or ludicrously awkward. Still too few women give a thought to this facet of charm, visible as it is.

In some quarters, there is even a misconception about gracefulness. People think of it as affected, finical posturing. Nothing could be further from the truth. Naturalness is the master key. The body is full of grace only when it performs precisely as nature intended. Quite oppositely, awkward movements are both contrived and purposeless — altogether unnatural. What's more they lead to figure bulges, muscle strain and fatigue, simply because they work against nature.

If you aren't sold on those ideas, try this experiment. Throw a matchbook on the floor and then pick it up. How did you retrieve it? By flopping over or plopping down? Either way you were far off the normal course. And had you been able to glimpse your back in a rear-view mirror, you would never forget to use this pick-up tactic.

Approach object to be retrieved from the side — not head on. Then, centering all weight on balls of feet and with feet one pace apart, gradually bend knees until hand can easily grasp object. Rise very slowly. Throughout hold head and back erect.

In the technique there is neither awkwardness or strain. For the knees are used as levers, a job for which they were designed. Of course, through disuse, your knees may have grown stiff. Well then, my lovely, make an exercise of the action. Graceful movement comes easiest to the limber.

Sheinwold Power to Ruff Just Like Credit

BY ALFRED SHEINWOLD

If you keep your credit in good shape you don't have to pay cash. If everybody knows that you're able to pay, you may not have to (at least for a time). The same principle sometimes applies in bridge.

South wins the first trick with the ace of spades and thinks first of ruffing losing spades in the dummy. If he does so, East will over-ruff, and West will still get a trump trick.

South is no better off if he ruffs just one spade in dummy. He can then draw three rounds of trumps and start the diamonds, but West ruffs the second round of diamonds and is 1530 points. Who cares about cashing a spade.

The solution to South's problem is to keep the power to ruff spades in dummy, but not to ruff any.

Trump Danger

South should see the danger of a 4-2 trump break. Since he can afford to lose one trump trick, he should lose it while he can still ruff a spade in dummy.

In other words, South should lead a low trump at the second trick. Since there is still a trump in dummy South is in no danger from the spades.

If the defenders lead another spade, dummy can ruff. If they return a trump, South draws three rounds of trumps, clears the ace of diamonds out of the way, and enters dummy with a club to discard spades on the high diamonds. He doesn't have to ruff a spade: he just needs the ability to do so.

It is true that South gives up lots of lather to wash away all the chance to make an over-trump when he leads a low trump at the second trick. Still, the difference between making the slam and going down one is 1530 points. Who cares about a 30-point overtrick with 1530 points at stake?

Daily Question

Partner deals and bids one heart, and the next player passes. You hold: S 10 9 8 7 4 2 H J 10 5 4 D 7 C 6 2. What do you say?

Answer: Bid two hearts. You have only 1 point in high cards, but should count about 4 additional points for your short suits. Be satisfied to raise the hearts: You cannot also afford to show the spades.

Brunei Revolt
Touched Off
Malaysia War

Abortive Uprising
Gave Sukarno First
Cause for Agitation

BRUNEI TOWN, Borneo (AP)—One year ago a spade-bearded revolutionary who vaguely resembles Lenin triggered an ill-timed, ineptly executed revolt in this oil-rich sultanate. British troops and tough Gurkhas quickly beat down the flames, but some of the embers were carried to Indonesia. There the fierce fanning of President Sukarno's leftist regime has touched off a bonfire which may sweep across this part of Southeast Asia.

Today Indonesian combat tabans, "volunteer freedom fighters" and terrorists bands face British and Malaysian forces across an 800-mile girded, mountainous border which splits Borneo island. Seventy-five men have been killed in Sarawak battles with Indonesian-based terrorist bands.

Little has changed in the 2,226 square-mile British protectorate of Brunei since the revolt touched off by A. M. Azahari. His short-lived revolt, aimed at seizing control of Brunei and neighboring Sarawak and North Borneo, was supported by many of Brunei's 85,000 inhabitants. Bereft of leadership and still operating under a state of emergency, Brunei's dissident elements are virtually powerless. British troops, planes and armor are on hand in case of trouble.

A lagging five-year plan is un-gime has touched off a bonfire der way, but little has been done to ease the pressures which led to insurgency: too little of the country's bulging treasury finds its way into the people's pockets.

During 1963 the sultanate is taking in an estimated total of $36.7 million in revenue and exports pending about $21 million. The difference will join some $300 million invested in gilded securities which return most after effects of the revolt. It has no border with Indonesia, and Sukarno's campaign is directed against Malaysia, a federation which Brunei decided not to join. The British territories of Sarawak and North Borneo did and were merged with Singapore into Malaysia.

By the standards of oil potentates, Sultan Sir Omar Ali Saifuddin lives modestly.

Much political power is wielded by Brunei Shell Petroleum, which provides more than half the government's revenue directly through taxes and 37 per cent more indirectly from investments made with past oil millions.

One heritage of the revolt is a vague awareness among sections of the public that their lives could be better.

Azahari, who spent the entire revolt period in Manila and later took refuge in Indonesia, has been discredited. But the fiery politician's demands for more money, more schools, more hospitals and less foreign domination echo still.

5 Appleton Residents To Attend Knight Inauguration at Duke

Elmer H. Jennings will bear the official greetings of Lawrence College to the inauguration of Dr. Douglas M. Knight as fifth president of Duke University Dec. 11.

Jennings is vice-president of the Lawrence board of trustees, a group he has been affiliated with since 1938, and was president of the board during several of Knight's nine years as president of Lawrence.

Five Appleton residents will attend the ceremony—Mr. and Mrs. Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Buchanan, and Margaret Schumann, Lawrence publicity director. Both Jennings and Buchanan served on the trustee committee that chose Knight to the Lawrence post in 1953, as well as his predecessor Nathan M. Pusey and his successor Curtis W. Tarr.

When Kennedy was assassinated Nov. 22, it could have been a made-to-order signal for a speculative raid on the dollar. But within minutes of the news, the free world's central bankers flashed the warning that they stood ready to buy whatever dollars were dumped, and to use every weapon in the arsenal to safeguard the U.S. currency. The currency gamblers knew the power they were up against. The raid didn't even get started.

Immediately after Treasury Secretary Dillon took office, his staff began pushing for tax concessions to businessmen to encourage them to increase their spending on new plants and equipment. In 1962 businessmen did get tax concessions from the Treasury and Congress amounting to over $2.5 billion a year, and as one result business spending on plants is at a record now and heading higher.

When Kennedy was killed, it could have been a signal for businessmen to downgrade their spending plans despite the tax incentives and the bright sales-profits outlook. But so far there have been no signs of this whatsoever and 1964's programs well may be revised upward. The tax incentives are working and business spending plans remain geared to a bright sales-profits outlook.

As far back as 1961, Kennedy began urging across-the-board tax cuts for individuals and corporations to spur our economy's growth, and the tax bill now coming out of the Senate Finance Committee is the result.

When President Johnson took over, it could have been a signal for consumers to pull back on buying while they waited to see whether Johnson would fight as hard for the tax cuts as Kennedy did. But in his first address, Johnson made his strong plea for tax reduction, and the bill may be passed earlier than would have been the case under Kennedy. Consumers are continuing to spend freely and

But so far there have been no signs of this whatsoever and 1964's programs well may be revised upward. The tax incentives are working and business spending plans remain geared to a bright sales-profits outlook.

As far back as 1961, Kennedy began urging across-the-board tax cuts for individuals and corporations to spur our economy's growth, and the tax bill now coming out of the Senate Finance Committee is the result.

When President Johnson took over, it could have been a signal for consumers to pull back on buying while they waited to see whether Johnson would fight as hard for the tax cuts as Kennedy did. But in his first address, Johnson made his strong plea for tax reduction, and the bill may be passed earlier than would have been the case under Kennedy. Consumers are continuing to spend freely and the stimulating impact of tax cuts is still to come.

Advancing Economy

Our economy was in its 33rd month of advance under Kennedy in November, and it's now in its 34th month of advance under Johnson in December. Profits and paychecks were hitting new peaks under Kennedy, will hit new peaks under Johnson.

None of this belittles Johnson's superbly reassuring performance since he took office, nor does it exaggerate Kennedy's achievements before his death. But the key fact is that the assassination might have had a devastating effect had it occurred before the Kennedy administration had done so much major work—and the action of the U.S. dollar is as dramatic an illustration of this point as could be found.

The instant the story broke, the world's central bankers put the weapons in the dollar defense arsenal to work. Before speculators could even begin to dump dollars, the New York Federal Reserve Bank was in the market offering foreign currencies in exchange for dollars. Before our officials could even phone central bankers elsewhere, they were on the phone to us asking what they could do to help. Before gamblers in gold could start a runup in the London gold market, the bankers were selling to keep down the price of the precious metal.

Policy Actions

Meanwhile, other policy actions we have taken bolstered confidence in our currency. The whole world knows we have pledged not to devalue the dollar. Every foreign banker knows we are taking firm steps to close the deficit in our balance of payments, to stem the drain on our gold reserve, to curb the outflow of hot money. Every nation knows we are determined to bring our international financial accounts into balance.

This tale of the dollar-raid, which wasn't might have had a far different ending had the assassination taken place 18 months ago. But Johnson has taken over at a time when the dollar's defenses are strong, tax incentives are helping business and tax cuts are on the way. The timing is Johnson's luck—and the luck of all of us too.

Tuition to Go Up $125 at Lawrence

Campus Fee Hits $2,325; Salaries Are Major Factor

A $125 increase in tuition at Lawrence College was announced in letters received this week by parents of present students.

President Curtis Tarr, explaining why the comprehensive fee at Lawrence will be increased to $2,325 for campus residents, and to $1,575 for commuting students for 1964-65, stated:

"Each year as the trustees of the college make their plans to meet our steadily increasing educational budget it has been necessary to ask for a modest increase in tuition fees. The figures compare very favorably with those announced by comparable Midwestern colleges.

Largest Item

"The largest item in the educational budget of all colleges that desire to give a first-rate education is that of faculty salaries. We are proud of our Lawrence faculty, and it is my major commitment, not only to keep the quality of teaching at its present level, but to increase its effectiveness as much as possible. To this end we must make substantial salary raises each year."

"In addition, the board of trustees is engaged in an all-out effort to raise money for buildings and other facilities which will keep Lawrence in the front rank of educational institutions of its size. The present building of Youngchild Hall of Science and the proposed infirmary, enlarged Art Center and additional dormitory accommodations are tangible evidence of their success in this program."

Tarr said the college would attempt to provide financial help for students in "genuine need."

Neenah Man Pays $100 For Inattentive Driving

WAUPACA — William Harnes Jr., 34, route 1, Neenah, forfeited a bond of $32.25 for passing another vehicle in face of oncoming traffic Tuesday when he failed to appear before Municipal Justice George Whalen.

He was arrested after an accident Nov. 21 in the Town of Farmington which caused an estimated $1,200 damage to two cars.

Madison School Sets Yule Concerts

The Madison Junior High School Orchestra, under the direction of Harold Hoecherl, will be heralding Christmas this week when they tour the elementary schools to present Christmas concerts.

Groups who will play are the string orchestra, composed of eighth and ninth grade students; Sinfonia, a ninth grade string group, and Goffus, a string quintet.

The program includes "Strauss in Three-Quarter Time" by the full eighth and ninth grade orchestra, "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen," "Lo! How a Rose E'er Blooms" and "Angels We Have Heard on High" by the eighth and ninth grade strings.

The groups played at Jefferson and Foster schools this morning. They also will play Thursday at Edison School at 1:10 p.m., at Johnston School at 1:50 p.m., at Richmond School at 2:30 p.m., and at McKinley at 3:05 p.m.

Beware of Persons Who Say 'I Hate Christmas'

BY HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to Christmas conclusions: If the young lady can't tell you from Adam all the rest of the year, but right now she mailed their Christmas cards gives you a dimpling smile last October have a problem. The stores are so thronged her off your list. She's just another selfish dame seeing how body.

many male dopes she can get to spring with Christmas gifts—so she can brag about them to her girl friends.

Beggar's Cups

Women and show business folks tinkle more coins into the cups of blind beggars than any-of only one sled—although each of the daughters got her own doll to cherish.

Most Mufflers

A man usually gets the most mufflers for Christmas the month before he retires and moves to Florida.

A philosopher is a husband who realizes early in marriage that, no matter how much care he shows in selecting the family Yule tree, when he lugs it home in triumph his wife, after inspecting it critically, will observe, "It's nice—but it has a wrong side to it."

No husband in history has been able to buy a tree his wife couldn't find had a wrong side.

The wise husband learns to bring his wife along on this chore and let her do the choosing.

The tinsel masterpieces today somehow lack the beauty of the trees we recall from our youth. Remember what fun it was to hang them with home-threaded garlands of red cranberries and white popcorn, and crown them with a hand-scissored cardboard star covered with tinfoil?

Science has accomplished many wonders, but one of the things it hasn't been able to do is to make a toy that a child can't manage to break within a minute. . . . 37 seconds.

People who say "I hate Christmas" usually don't have Schenk, Henry Pelky, John Glocke, Donald Jarvais and Dick Schertz.

Victory for Democracy in Venezuela

United States citizens perhaps can more easily appreciate the feelings of Venezuelans trying to go to the polls to vote last Sunday after the hectic and frightening events in our own country only ten days before. How can the orderly processes of government proceed when terrorists threaten to shoot anyone who appears on the streets, when they hijack an airplane, kidnap a number of people, among them an American colonel, and shoot into a line of potential voters? The fact that Venezuela did hold its elections, that a high percentage of the eligible voters cast their ballots, and the government still stands as strong indications that democracy in that country may survive after all.

The terrorists have been stepping up their nefarious activities for months. Venezuelans were sure that they were being actively aided by Cuban Communists but no formal charges were brought because there did not seem to be much proof.

But last week President Betancourt said that there was "incontrovertible" evidence that a three ton cache of guns and ammunition had been smuggled in by Cubans. He asked for an emergency meeting of the Organization of American States council authorized by the 1947 Treaty of Rio de Janeiro to determine how to help when the peace or security of a nation in this hemisphere was threatened.

Actually the declaration of Caracas, signed in 1954, was much stronger in its wording and included the use of military action in case of hemispheric threat. But Latin American nations have been fearful of doing very much. Economic sanctions were applied against the Dominican Republic when Trujillo was shown to have tried to kill Betancourt. But when the Cubans aimed their Russian missiles at the United States only a little more than a year ago, members of the O.A.S. could only shake a finger and deplore the action, and three of them — Brazil, Argentina and Mexico — wouldn't even do that.

Some Latin American leaders have tried to walk a tightrope in their admittedly difficult dealings with various segments of their populations. In efforts to appease the far left and the anti-Yanqui elements, they often refrain from criticism of communism or Cuba with the solid knowledge that the United States would protect them anyway if Cuba invaded.

President Betancourt is not that sort of leader. Both the far right of Trujillo and the far left of Castro have tried to get rid of him. The terrorism in Venezuela during the election and which will probably keep on at least until March when the new officers take office is really not aimed at this time at a Red take-over. Instead it hopes to stimulate a military coup which in the long run the Communists think will play into their hands better.

We hope the O.A.S. will have the courage this time to study the evidence of Cuban support for terrorism in Venezuela and take at least as strong a stand as it once did against Trujillo. But for the time being the free elections in Venezuela have been a triumph for President Betancourt and freedom loving people of his country. With such examples for the rest of Latin America to follow, the words of our late President take on new importance:

"Terror is not a new weapon. Throughout history it has been used by those who could not prevail either by persuasion or example. But inevitably they fail, either because men are not afraid to die for a life worth living, or because the terrorists themselves come to realize that free men cannot be frightened by threats and that aggression would meet its own response."

Tightest Security Measures Ever During Kennedy Funeral

BY ROBERT S. ALLEN AND PAUL SCOTT

State Department security officers were on the alert for the use of new weapons, such as radioactive material, poison gas and bacteria, by potential assassins during the funeral procession and burial of the late President John F. Kennedy.

This warning was contained in secret instructions given security officers protecting foreign dignitaries visiting this country, and applies to the safety of President Johnson and other high-level U.S. officials traveling overseas or attending international conferences.

Issued before the arrival of the world's high and mighty leaders and representatives of 91 nations—that gathered last week to bid farewell to the late President, the security warning is part of the most elaborate protective system ever put into effect by the U.S. government.

The quiet effectiveness of this new security system was clearly shown when not a single incident occurred against a foreign dignitary during the Kennedy memorial services that brought more heads of state to the nation's capital than ever before.

Under the tight direction of Keith O. Lynch, head of the State Department's Division of Protective Security, more than 700 special security police were brought to Washington from other cities and foreign countries to form the protective wall.

Hundreds of Secret Service and FBI agents and Washington police constantly combed all the buildings in downtown Washington, with at least one officer stationed in every room along the routes the dignitaries rode or walked.

All sewers and other passages under the main streets were carefully inspected and sealed along the entire route of the funeral procession.

THE SECRET DETAILS—With the book now closed on the State Department's largest and most successful security operation, these and other details of the instructions given federal security officers can now be published.

Covering almost every known situation, these security instructions drew heavily on information based on past assassination attempts on world leaders throughout history, stating:

"For the last 2000 years there has been an assassination, or a serious attempt at one, in practically every nation during each generation. One or more attempts have been made against almost everyone who ruled for a significant length of time.

"Throughout history, in approximately one out of every two recorded attempts at assassination, the victim has been killed. Since 1900 there have been 200 attempted assassinations, about 100 of which were successful."

In alerting security officers to the new potential methods of assassination, the instructions bluntly warn:

"New weapons, such as radioactive materials, poison gas and bacteria, have apparently not yet been used for an individual assassination. However, because of new advances by science in these fields, all security officers should be on the alert for their possible use now and in the future."

According to the instructions, "the most commonly encountered danger is close-range attack with a gun or knife," although it is admitted that "high-powered weapons may also be used from a distance with an attacker firing from a window in buildings overlooking the routes taken by dignitaries."

CLOSING THE DOOR—The 50 pages of instructions stressed taking advance security measures to protect foreign dignitaries participating in processions, stating:

"If great danger is anticipated, sewers and other passages under the streets should be inspected and sealed prior to the procession. Occupants

Red Tape Reduced in Air Travel

From The Houston Post

Anything that reduces the amount of red tape connected with international travel is likely to be beneficial, so Washington's decision to permit oral baggage declarations at international airports by overseas travelers is a commendable sign.

After Jan. 1, travelers arriving by air from overseas will not be required to fill out the usual detailed customs declarations unless articles purchased abroad exceed in value the $100 exemption per person.

Instead of the written declaration, travelers will fill out a pocket-size identification card with name, address, and accompanying family members. The card will be handed out to customs agents, who will determine whether imported articles are subject to duty.

Treasury Department officials hope that the new system will further encourage foreigners to visit the United States, thereby helping to reduce the balance of payments deficit.

Although the plan applies initially to air travel, it will also be tried experimentally on transoceanic ships arriving at New York. If this proves successful, it will be extended to all ports. Whatever the plan's effect on foreigners may be, most American travelers undoubtedly will welcome it.

of buildings facing routes of the foreign dignitaries should be checked, and a person of known reliability should be given the responsibility in each location of assuring that no suspicious persons are allowed at windows or on roof tops in the danger area.

"In 1878, for example, an attempt was made to assassinate William I of Germany while he was riding in a parade. He was wounded by a shot from a nearby building window, and while trying to decide whether to proceed or not, he was further wounded by a second shot.

"Accompanying protective personnel should be dispersed in order to cover all avenues of access to the dignitaries. They should continually adjust their relative position to be sure that no attacker is able to get between the protectors and the dignitaries.

"During outdoor walks, an official automobile should cruise in the immediate vicinity. It can be used to block any other vehicle that may threaten the dignitaries' safety or be used as a means of transportation for the dignitaries in case an emergency develops and it appears necessary to seek a safer location.

"Security officers assigned will remain with each dignitary 24 hours a day from the time he enters the U.S. until his departure."

OTHER SECURITY MEASURES — The security measures also called for "distribution of information on known crackpots and agitators in the areas traveled by the dignitaries. This information should be circulated among all appropriate law enforcement agencies, and include names, photos, descriptive data and current whereabouts."

Other highlights in the instructions included: "Assassins often obtain information by making inquiries or listening to local residents, servants and others. Assassins sometimes resort to shadowing and reconnaissance to learn about the behavior of the victim and the characteristics of the attack area.

"As a rule, assassins do not possess the weapons they intend to use in the attack. Weapons and equipment are usually bought from pawnshops, borrowed from friends, or stolen from military supplies.

"In cases where there are more than one person involved, one of the assassins will assign duties to each member. One will be designated to make the attack and the other members of the conspiracy will be assigned to kill the attacker if he fails to carry out his assignment or is caught."

Under international law and practice, it is the duty of a host government to assure the safety of officials of foreign states traveling in its territory.

New State Program of Medical Aid for Aged Gets Little Publicity

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON — A likely choice for the most under-played of the significant news developments in Wisconsin public affairs this year is the enactment of the first medical assistance act for the benefit of the needy aged.

Wyngaard

The State Department of Public Welfare in a few weeks will call for bids from underwriting companies for the operation of a new and far-reaching program that will guarantee anybody over the age of 65, who can prove financial need on a generous eligibility standard, public reimbursement for hospitalization costs deriving from illness or other disability, including nursing home indemnities.

The program is an alternative to the medical care for the aged program under Social Security which has been kicked around in the national political arena for the last decade, with yet no assurance of enactment in the United States Congress. Whether it is a preferred alternative, or whether it will have permanence as a substitute, may be debated. Yet it is important that while Washington talked, Wisconsin acted. Starting next July 1 Wisconsin will have a medical assistance program for the needy aged. Most of the rest of the country won't.

PROPAGANDA

Yet it seems likely that thousands of potential beneficiaries are not yet aware of the fact.

This corner has sometimes observed that what the legislature needs, in this day of proliferating press agency in the governmental services, is a publicity agent whose job it would be to communicate some of its more important deeds, even as hundreds of the lesser institutions run by sophisticated bureaucrats now grind out publicity materials daily for the edification of the voters and the taxpayers.

The comparative obscurity of this far-reaching new medical assistance act may be contrasted with the continuing drumfire of publicity about Social Security, extension to accommodate medical care on a universal basis. Scarcely a day passes that somebody in Washington doesn't make a prediction that the Congress is on the verge of enacting that proposal, although it must be clear by this time that the outlook is dubious, indeed.

CONTRAST

The state medical care act, enacted with federal government assistance under the so-called Kerr-Mills Act, is sometimes regarded as the doctors' substitute for Social Security extension to cover medical and hospital payments.

There is no denying the fact that the medical profession, terrified at the prospect of what it calls "government medicine," eagerly embraced the Kerr-Mills approach as a means of heading off a universal and tax-paid program. But it seems reasonable to assume also that physicians, and many others, recognized the social necessity for some kind of public protection against the financial liability of medical and hospital costs to the genuinely needy.

Thus Wisconsin has now said, in effect, that elderly persons who have small incomes and modest assets will be entitled to benefits at public expense for the costs of illness and other disabilities associated with age, outside the ordinary public assistance programs.

There is no precise way of estimating how many persons will benefit. A cautious guess appears to be that there may be 20,000 or more of them annually, as the program becomes fully operative and there is a general awareness of its existence.

That figure if it is realized will be a larger total of direct beneficiaries than were counted for some of the other pioneering achievements in the field of social legislation in this state, and far more than are involved in some of the more dramatically publicized legislative decisions. But many of the others had better press agency.

Unsolicited Advice Is Most Often Worthless

BY SYDNEY J. HARRIS

Purely Personal Prejudices: There is a certain prevalent type of pseudo-religious person who not only feels that repentance washes out past sins but also gives sanction for future ones, so that each act of repentance somehow buys "credit" for tomorrow's transgressions.

Harris

People are neatly divided into those who talk about things they don't do, and those who do things they don't talk about; and society comes down hard only on those rash enough to try to combine the two.

Shaw said so many true and wonderfully witty things that it's a pity one of his silliest remarks is the most often quoted—that "youth is such a wonderful thing, it's a shame to waste it on children"—for in the first place, youth is also a time of trials and terrors which we mercifully forget as we grow older; and, in the second, it is not at all wasted on children, but would be utterly wasted on adults.

Speaking of children, it appeals me to see so many mothers holding their small children in the front seat of the car with them, while the father drives; they would not permit the children to sit on the edge of a second-story porch, yet this "suicide seat" in an automobile is far more dangerous.

The three most important problems facing the 20th century, in my opinion, are (1) Automation, (2) Population explosion, and (3) Peaceful use of atomic energy; and while the world quarrels about outmoded political and economic concepts, none of these problems is being realistically attacked by any nation or combination of powers, who are still slogging through the mire of 19th century Machtpolitik.

Of all traits, I find that of giving unsolicited advice the most offensive — especially since the chronic advice-giver is usually a person whose poor judgment and rigid convictions have made a mess of his own life.

A father tinkering with his motor was asked by his little boy what a certain part was; "Never mind!" I heard the father say, and the boy slunk away; ten years from now, the father will wonder why the boy never minds.

A person who is sick and cheerful arouses our admiration, while one who is healthy and sad excites our contempt; however, if we could realize that, with the latter, sadness is his sickness, we might be more sympathetic toward their unattractive ailment.

There may be many disasters and reversals, but only one tragedy in life: to grow old without growing up, to die a withered acorn, without ever knowing what it is like to be an oak tree.

Potomac Fever — by Fletcher Knebel

It should be pointed out that Mrs. Johnson is the nation's first Ladybird in the White House.

Around Goldwater headquarters, they've quit trying to sell TVA and started trying to get rid of NAR—Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Sargent Shriver, the Peace Corps boss, is touted for Vice-President. That puts him in a select company—not to mention a battalion — of Democrats.

Ode to the ideal Christmas gift: A festive bit with gimmicks strange — and fashioned for a swift exchange.

Question: Will Lyndon Johnson be one of the Baines of the Republicans' existence?

The Governor's Highway Bill

Governor Reynolds has summoned the members of the state legislature to return to the capitol next week to act on his proposal for a vast acceleration of major route highway construction through the creation of yet another "dummy" corporation for the issuance and sale of long-term state bonds.

The Republican leaders who control the legislature have greeted his announcement with a conspicuous lack of enthusiasm. The first comments of Mr. Haase, the speaker of the assembly, and Senator Leonard, one of the spokesmen for the stalwart Republican majority in the state senate, do not quarrel particularly with the merits of a faster paced highway building effort, but they show a considerable doubt about the timing and the method proposed. Under the circumstances, the governor is taking an obvious risk in asking the legislature to return to Madison for the third time this year to consider a proposition that was before it in the regular session and again in the November recessed session which ended only a few weeks ago.

There may very well be some partisan motivation in the action of the governor, and in the reaction of his opponents in the rival Republican party. That would be in the nature of the competitive political system.

Yet the citizen standing a step or two removed from the partisan fight may also have some reservations, without impugnig the ultimate worth of the governor's plan.

There can be no disputing the value of modern and efficient highways to the economy of any state. We have no doubt that, all things being equal, this state would cheerfully encourage the construction of more main line roads, and at a more rapid pace than we have been permitted lately although we have had a succession of generous construction budgets during the last decade.

But this is not an ordinary situation. In the first place, there has been comparatively little public discussion of this immense and novel scheme to incur a 40 year indebtedness for a new purpose—at a time when our state indebtedness for other purposes and notably educational and welfare institution construction is increasing rapidly and will inevitably increase by huge leaps in the years ahead. The latest substitute bill which the governor has endorsed was printed only a few weeks ago. We have examined it and some of its details are difficult to comprehend.

In practical political terms, the legislator asked to make a decision on this issue will be inclined to glance over his shoulder at the faceless taxpayer in his constituency who has already this year had a far larger than ordinary budget of unpleasant tax news from Madison. The governor's call for a special session on Dec. 10 was apparently designed to force the legislature to act quickly, in order to adjourn before the holidays. We believe the legislature owes the public more deliberation on an issue of such size and with implications for a new, heavy and permanent long-term debt load. There should be extensive hearings, even if the final roll calls are deferred until January.

Looking Backward

Call for Petticoat War Brigade

100 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for Dec. 5, 1863.

This paper has said so much that it seems superfluous to say more in behalf of the wives, widows and children of those who have been and are now battling for the very existence of the Union.

It is high time that "pride had a fall." The Southern ladies have ripped up their carpets to make blankets for Confederate soldiers, their jewelry has gone to furnish funds for their men to fight against the Government of the United States. They have discarded silks and even their "hoops." They are content to live on corn bread and bacon—no coffee, no tea, no sugar, no wheat flour—all done, as they claim, to achieve their independence.

Will the ladies of the North excuse themselves much longer? They ought to wield a powerful influence toward the impression of the Rebellion. They are our wives and sisters, mothers and daughters. Can they excuse themselves from duty?

Family cares constitute no excuse in war. An hour devoted to a crippled soldier, a word of cheer to the almost homeless wife, and substantial aid to relieve the distressed, would be a crown for the American woman far more desirable than that worn by the Empress of the French or the Czarina of Russia.

The wives and widows of soldiers should throw aside their all false pride and apply to the Ladies Soldier's Aid Society for assistance when they need it.

Don't trust to the starvation-saving system of the City Board or City Officers. Make your actual wants known. The merchants, mechanics, farmers, manufacturers and business men generally of Outagamie County will never see you suffer.

Thursday, Dec. 1, 1938.

Alice Mae Whittier was elected president of the Kaukauna Little Theater at the organizational meeting in the municipal building. Mrs. Harold Denu was named first vice president. Herman Maes, second vice president. Mrs. Samuel Miller, recording secretary. Robert Monney, corresponding secretary. Mrs. Frank Femal, treasurer. Mrs. John Cleland and Miss Virginia Goetzman, members - at-large on the board of directors. Miss Germaine Kalupa was named program chairman.

Mrs. Guy E. McCoson was general chairman of the Charity Ball, annual social highlight of the holiday season. The event was sponsored by the Infant Welfare Circle of King's Daughters and members of the committee that year included Mrs. Ray Peterson, Mrs. D. J. Courtney, Mrs. Henry Boon, Mrs. V.

James Whelan, Mrs. Myron T. Ray, Mrs. William Buchanan and Mrs. Carl McKee.

Mrs. L. J. Marshall was to present a program on the Holy Land when the Appleton Deiphian Club held its guest day. Included in the program were to be Hebrew folk songs sung in Hebrew by Mrs. Jay Wallens and group singing of traditional Christmas songs under the direction of Mrs. F. J. Leonard.

Thursday, Dec. 3, 1953.

The Appleton Common Council voted 19 to 1 to annex the 123-acre Buchholz addition to the city. Ald. Kenneth Priebe of the 13th Ward was the only dissenter. The area on the south side of the city was bounded by the city limits along Carpenter Street, Roosevelt Street and the Hanson farm property.

Mrs. Leo Koffernus was elected noble grand of Fidelity Pebekeh Lodge of the Clintonville Odd Fellows. Other officers for the year were Mrs. J. B. Johnson, vice grand. Mrs. Herman Nass, financial secretary. Mrs. Martin Falk, treasurer, and Mrs. W. H. Schmidt, trustee.

Nicolet elementary pupils in Kaukauna were preparing a Christmas pageant for the Parent-Teacher association. Taking leading roles in the dramatic work "Come and Worship" were Sherrill Kimpel, Barbara Polley and Roland Wussow. Other fourth, fifth and sixth grade children were in the chorus.

"Old Tamarack," the wily, big buck that had eluded hunters for years was believed to have been shot by Kaukauna hunter Cornelius "Nip" Niesing in the Shiocton public hunting area. Game wardens identified the 20-point, 195-pound buck shot by Niesing from the animal's picturesque rack and size.

THE SECRET DETAILS—With the book now closed on the State Department's largest and most successful security operation, these and other details of the instructions given federal security officers can now be published.

Covering almost every known situation, these security instructions drew heavily on information based on past assassination attempts on world leaders throughout history, stating:

"For the last 2000 years there has been an assassination, or a serious attempt at one, in practically every nation during each generation. One or more attempts have been made against almost everyone who ruled for a significant length of time.

Ed Holler Takes Nitschke's Place On Bays' Roster

Dave Robinson Will Start Saturday in Los Angeles

GREEN BAY (AP) — Green Bay Packer Coach Vince Lombardi says that middle line-backer Ray Nitschke made three tackles after breaking his arm in the Thanksgiving Day game with Detroit and wouldn't leave until the arm went numb. The Packers announced Wednesday that Nitschke, the most valuable player in last year's National Football League, title in Packer drills but could not game, had been placed on the injured reserve list. This means that should the injury respond sooner than expected, Nitschke would be ineligible for duty in any conference playoff games.

Midwest Loop's Quincy Has No Affiliation

Franchise May Be Moved to Another City

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

SAN DIEGO — The Class A Midwest League, thought to be ready to go with the same 10 clubs in 1964, ran into a snag here at the minor league baseball convention.

Two changes in affiliation are definite for the coming season. The New York Mets have dropped out of Quincy, and Wisconsin Rapids has switched from the Washington Senators to the talent-strong Minnesota Twins.

Nine of the 10 members of the circuit either had representatives or sent proxies to the convention, with Quincy the only exception.

A quick phone call by league president Walter Wagner to Quincy club president Jim Tobin revealed that the Jets were ready to operate except for a working agreement. Tobin said, he was willing to work from the general player pool, but the remaining league delegates present were doubtful as to the wisdom of this decision.

Show Reluctance

A search was quickly initiated to find an affiliation, either for Quincy or a new franchise. Some farm directors have shown reluctance to work with Quincy.

Des Moines, Ia. and Springfield, Ill., are mentioned as the leading cities to take up the Quincy franchise with the Washington Senators likely to supply the working agreement.

Since Des Moines entry would spread the league further and lengthen road trips for most of the clubs, Springfield (with a new ball park being built) is the leading candidate for entry the other NHL game scheduled should an affiliation at Quincy not be found.

One of the officials attending the annual convention here is Heberton, who has played eight years without missing a game. "I hope they let me play 581 more. I feel good. Naturally, I wish we had won. The game got away from us."

He said his key to endurance is simple: "First, you have to have a lot of luck. Second, you must avoid major injuries. And third, you have to stay in condition."

Heberton cracked the NHL mark of 580 straight games set by Johnny Wilson when he played from 1952-1960. Five of his seasons were with Detroit, two with Chicago and one with Toronto.

Vandy 'Very Honored,' Glad He Helped Team

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL —

Ron Vanderkelen, Minnesota Vikings' quarterback who had his biggest day in pro football last Sunday, said today he was "obviously surprised" at being named The Associated Press Player of The Week in the National Football League.

"It was quite a thing and I'm very honored," said the unassuming Vandy, who led the Vikings to a 17-17 tie with the Chicago Bears.

"I'm very glad I could help the team," continued the rookie signal caller, who took over when Frank Tarkenton was knocked out early in the game.

Viking Cagers Drop 75-62 Decision to Stevens Point

Steinmetz, Ungrodt Both Hit 17 Points

BY DON LEMKE
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

STEVENS POINT — A slick passing Stevens Point College basketball team took advantage of Lawrence mistakes here Wednesday night and scored a 75-62 non-conference victory.

It was the first start for new Coach Clyde Rusk's team. The Vikings will host Grinnell on Friday night at 7:30 and then play Cornell on Saturday afternoon in Midwest Conference openers.

After the first 10 minutes of the game, the Vikings never led, but they did pull up to a 69-61 score with 4:08 left. The Pointers proceeded to stall out most of the final minutes and preserve the victory.

The young Pointer team took control of the game in the final six minutes of the first half. Holding a narrow, 24-22 margin, the victors popped in five quick baskets, four of them by freshman Mike Fortune, and took a 36-26 lead. They maintained that 10 point, 40-30, margin at half-time.

The Vikings made a strong comeback at the outset of the second half when Menasha's Tom Steinmetz tossed in six points. Lawrence narrowed the count to 45-41 and it looked as though the Viking ship was sailing.

Kaukauna's Bill Borchardt and Gerald Lawetzki took care of that comeback. Lawetzki tipped in three rebounds and Borchardt hit four straight shots from the corner to give Stevens Point a 61-44 advantage, largest at any point in the game.

The Vikings made one more attempt. Facing a 64-51 deficit, Lawrence scored four straight baskets to narrow the count to seven points with 7:16 still to go. Baskets by Bryan Wirth and Fortune and the effective stall prevented a further comeback.

The game was tied at 8, 10, 12, 16 and 18 in the opening moments. Joel Ungrodt's fast-break basket with 14:20 to play in the first half gave Lawrence its only lead of the night, 10-8. Stevens Point, playing its third game of the year, controlled the rebounds and with them the game. The Viking Talent laden Ripon College ranks as the favorite to win the 1963-4 Midwest Conference basketball crown.

Beloit got a head start on the other teams by posting an 83-74 victory over Coe last week. League activity picks up in quick fashion this weekend with four games Friday and another four Saturday.

Ripon has earned the designation as the favorite because four starters are back from last year's team which shared the conference title with Cornell.

Major Threats
Cornell and Knox have been mentioned as the major threats standing in Ripon's way to the crown.

Here is a rundown on teams and their season outlook:

Ripon—Heading the list of returnees for the Redmen are Jack Anderson, all-sports star and Gary Mevis. Both were all-conference first team picks last season. Willie Alexander and Jim Cahoon are two other starters back. Ripon opened the non-conference campaign by defeating Oshkosh State, 77-55.

Cornell—The Rams were impressive in the season non-league debut by rolling in 114 points in a win over Iowa Wesleyan. The team also scored over 100 points against the school's freshman team.

Jack Grams and Dick Calbow, a pair of starters, head the lettermen and a promising newcomer is 6-6 Bob Moore.

Carleton—Faced with a rebuilding job, Carleton has only one returnee, Mike Tierney, from last season's club which finished third in the conference. Six sophomores are on the squad and hold the key to the Carls fortunes this season.

Grinnell—Jim Mifflin, a first team all-conference forward, is the key man in the Grinnell attack. Mifflin was the fourth-best scorer in the conference last season.

Two other starters returning are John Sundell and Dave Sel-

Terrors Open FRVC Campaign at East

AHS and Indians Have Best Marks

Post-Crescent Sports Editor

Friday night, Appleton High School's Terrors will begin showing how valid their credentials are for a serious shot at their first basketball championship in four years.

The Terrors, ranked No. 1 by Fox Valley Conference sports writers, travel to Green Bay to take on third-rated East. The game at Washington Junior High School starts at 8:15 p.m.

AHS, which looked like anything but a potential title contender in a season-opening, 81-53 loss to Kimberly, bounced back impressively to edge Menasha, 57-56, and whip Madison West, 89-59.

Only one other FRVC school, Oshkosh, posted as good a pre-league record as the Terrors. The Indians beat Madison East and West Bend and lost a close decision to Stevens Point.

Has 500 Mark

Fond du Lac, at 1-1, was the only other FRVC team to play at least 500 ball in exhibition starts. Defending co-champions Manitowoc and Green Bay West recorded 1-2 records. After running up 100 points on Two Rivers, Manitowoc (ranked second to AHS in the upcoming race) bowed to Mid-Eastern Conference potwars Kimberly and Menasha.

East and Sheboygan South both lost their only non-league starts, while Sheboygan North bowed three straight times.

In other Friday openers, besides the AHS-at-East clash, West plays in Manitowoc, South visits Oshkosh and Fondy invades North.

AHS Coach Dick Emanuel plans to start the same unit that led the way last Saturday. Brian Bock, Tom Callaway and Neil Weber will be in the forefront, with Gary Hietpas and Chuck McKee manning the backcourt posts. Bock leads team scoring, with 44 points in the three games. Hietpas has scored 36. Callaway 29. McKee 24 and Weber 16.

Show Good Depth

The Terrors' depth showed up to advantage against Madison West. Paul Schumaker, who appears to be the No. 1 fireman, scored 11 points to boost his total to 21. Bob Ness and Bruce Miller rebounded well as replacements for Weber. Pat Gen-Coe—the Kohawks dropped dron, gaining confidence with top rebounder.

Bunning and Triandos Traded by Tigers for Don Demeter, Hamilton

First Inter-League Swap Completed At Winter Meetings

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Detroit Tigers traded pitcher Jim Bunning and catcher Gus Triandos to the Philadelphia Phillies today for outfielder Don Demeter and pitcher Jack Hamilton.

It was the fourth trade of the winter baseball meetings and the first inter-league swap.

Bunning, 32, had a 12-13 record last season and Triandos, 33, batted .250 and hit 14 home runs.

Demeter, 28, batted .256 and hit 22 homers. Hamilton, a 24-year-old righthander had a 2-1 record with the Phils before being farmed out. He was 9-12 with Philadelphia in 1962.

Had No-Hitter

Bunning, a righthander who has pitched in several All-Star games, has been with the Tigers since the 1955 season. He pitched a no-hitter against the Boston Red Sox on July 26, 1956 and has compiled a 118-87 record.

Triandos, traded to the Tigers by Baltimore a year ago, had his best season in 1956 with Baltimore when he batted .279, knocking in 68 runs. He hit 39 homers in 1958, a record for American League catchers also held by Yogi Berra, manager of the New York Yankees. He began his major league career with the Yankees in 1953 but was traded to the Orioles in 1954.

Demeter came to the Phillies from the Dodgers with infielder Charlie Smith for pitcher Dick Farrell and infielder Joe Koppe on May 4, 1961. He has hit 72 homers the past three seasons and enjoyed his best season in 1962 when he hit 29 home runs, knocked in 107 runs and batted .307.

Hamilton divided last season with the Phillies and Little Rock of the International League where he had a 4-3 mark.

Pioneer League Reactivated

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—The Pioneer League, which folded after the 1963 season, was reactivated Wednesday at the winter baseball convention.

It will be a four-club rookie league and will play a 65-game schedule, opening June 21.

League members and their major league affiliations: Idaho Falls, Los Angeles Angels; Twin Falls, Idaho, San Francisco Giants; Pocatello, Idaho, Los Angeles Dodgers; Caldwell, Idaho, Chicago Cubs.

Van Arsdale Twins Score 76 Points

Indiana Beats ND: Wichita, Providence, Louisville All Lose

BY MIKE RATHET

Fifth-ranked Wichita, NIT champion Providence and powerful Louisville had trouble finding the basket, but it was Notre Dame that was seeing double.

Wichita, Providence and Louisville were victims of shocking upsets Wednesday night while Notre Dame ran into a pair of twin terrors—Tom and Dick Van Arsdale of Indiana, who combined for 74 points in a 108-102 victory over the Irish.

Wichita became the first member of the top ten to lose a game as two foul shots by Steve Tradenick clinched a 75-74 victory for unheralded Texas Western. Providence bowed to Assumption, Mass., 83-80 and Louisville was jolted 78-65 by Eastern Kentucky.

Two other top ten teams saw action — second-ranked NYU and third-ranked Cincinnati—and both had difficulty. Barry Kramer and Happy Hairston led the Violets from behind for an 82-65 victory over Cornell and the Bearcats stalled in the closing minutes to hold off Miami, Ohio, 60-58.

10 Key Points

In other top games, sophomore Steve Renko, a football quarterback, threw in 10 key points as Kansas whipped Arkansas 73-60. Stan Luechtefeld dropped in two foul shots to clinch St. Louis' 81-78 decision over Illinois. Purdue's Mel Garland hit for 27 points in an 86-80 victory over Detroit and Virginia Tech handed Mississippi State its first defeat at home in three years, 93-77, with Howard Pardue scoring 32 points.

Indiana had difficulty with Notre Dame throughout but finally pulled ahead after 6-foot-6 Larry Jesewitz fouled out. Jon McGlockin's basket put the Hoosiers ahead 86-85 and the Van Arsdale twins took it from there. Dick collected 42 points, Tom 32 as they hit on 29 of 53 shots.

NYU had difficulty getting its fast-break patterns working smoothly and trailed Cornell by as many as seven points before Kramer and Hairston triggered the Violets' second half comeback. Kramer scored 23 points, Hairston 22.

Cincinnati not only had difficulty, but its hands full. With 1-25 left, baskets by Charlie Coles moved Miami within 57-33 and Coach Ed Jucker sent the Bearcats into a freeze that held off the Redskins. Ron Bonham topped Cincinnati with 26 points.

Top scoring honors for the night went to a loser, Manny Newsome of Western Michigan. Newsome scored 45 points on 17 field goals and all 11 of his foul shots, but a tip-in by Marcus Sanders with 28 seconds left gave Michigan State a 101-100 victory.

St. Olaf—The Oles do not swing into conference action for another week and will be relying on several holdover players to form the nucleus of a squad which will be out to improve last year's 7-11 record.

Lawrence—Joel Ungrodt, who has been re-writing the scoring record book at Lawrence heads the list of lettermen. Luke Grosier and Earl Hoover give the Vikes an additional pair of starters back, and a number of new players will be relied on to boost the Vikes in the standings.

Monmouth—Six lettermen, including two regulars from last season head the 14-man Monmouth squad. Harold Rathgeb, 6-6 senior center and Gary Gililand, guard, are the starters back.

Menasha—The UW-Fox Valley Center cagers gained the lead with about four minutes left in the first half and were in front the rest of the way in defeating defending champion Green Bay, 67-61, in a University of Wisconsin Extension Division Conference game Wednesday night at Green Bay.

The Trotters, who now have a 2-2 record, held a 37-32 lead at the intermission.

All five Fox Valley starters hit in the double figures. Marty Kapp had 19 points. Pete Vande Hey 15, Gary Austin 11 and Steve Schmidt and Mike Swiontek 10. Paul Cartier's 15 led the Fox Valley.

The Cardinals have contracts from No. 2 Hershel Turner, Kentucky tackle; Syracuse end Dick Bowman, their No. 6 pick, and two futures picked last year—Kansas State fullback Willie Crenshaw and Arkansas tackle Bob Clay.

Baltimore, Chicago and Los Angeles have signed their top selections, the Colts getting Indiana back Marv Woodson, the Bears grabbing Tennessee tackle Dick Evey and the Rams coming up with Utah State quarterback Bill Munson.

Los Angeles also has signed Occidental quarterback Bill Redell, a free agent. Pittsburgh has signed Jackson State tackle Ben McGee, No. 4.

Besides Beathard, the Chiefs

"Hooks" Harvey of Toronto, Canada is one of the stars with the Harlem Diplomats who will appear in an exhibition game at the St. John High School gym in Little Chute Friday night. The Diplomats will meet a squad of local all-stars at 8 p.m. The game is sponsored by the St. John Athletic Association.

Minnesota's Vikings Lead Checkbook War

BY MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

Minnesota's Vikings never got out of the trenches the last time but they're winning this year's checkbook war for the nation's top college football talent.

The vengeful Vikings, who had their top two 1962 draft picks intercepted by the American Football League, have turned the tables this time while pulling the National Football League out front in the early roundup of the country's outstanding players.

The Vikings signed their seventh and eighth selections Wednesday — Arkansas tackle Wes Bryant and fullback Bill McWatters of North Texas State. The Vikings previously had grabbed off their Nos. 1 and 2 picks—tackle Carl Eller of Minnesota and Southern California end Hal Besdo.

The Vikings' signings account for one-third of the 12 draft selections signed by the NFL. Kansas City's Chiefs outbid Detroit of the NFL for their chief choice, quarterback Pete Beathard of Southern California, making it three quarterbacks, the Lions have lost to the AFL in three years. Detroit previously was outbid for John Hadl, now with San Diego, and Eddie Wilson, now with the Chiefs.

Besides Minnesota, Dallas and St. Louis in the NFL each have signed four players.

The Cowboys have inked Georgia Tech quarterback Billye Lothridge, their No. 6 pick. No. 12 Johnny Ray Norman, a flanker from Northwest Louisiana and two free agents from Tennessee—tailback Mallon Faircloth and end Buddy Fisher.

Besides Beathard, the Chiefs

have signed two futures—New Mexico State back Preacher Pilot and Georgia Tech back Joe Auer. Oakland's AFL entry has nailed its fourth and ninth selections, Boston U. linebacker Bill Budness and John Williamson, Louisiana Tech guard.

Elsewhere in the AFL, Buffalo has signed Boston U. halfback George Byrd, Tulsa end J. B. Simmons and a free agent—halfback Bob Curington of North Carolina College. Houston has signed No. 5 pick Texas A&I halfback Sid Blanks, and Denver has signed No. 7 Ray Kuba, Texas A&M tackle.

Badgers Tops On Offense

Michigan State Leads Big 10 in Defensive Statistics

CHICAGO (AP) — The only points that really count are those on the scoreboard. And Illinois should know that better than anybody.

The Illini won the Big Ten football title and Rose Bowl trip, but Wisconsin and Michigan State took the statistical titles—if that's any consolation. Wisconsin, sharing fifth place in the final standings, was No. 1 on offense for the second straight year. It was the first time since 1959 that the Big Ten champion was not the offensive leader.

Michigan State, sharing second place with Ohio State, was the top defensive outfit, allowing opponents only 7.2 points a game, 178.7 net total yards, 58.2 plays a game and 3.1 yards per play.

The Spartans also were tops in rushing yardage with an average of 187.2, the lowest winning total in the Big Ten's modern era starting in 1939.

Wisconsin was first in eight offensive departments. Of the major categories, the Badgers led in first downs, 17.4 per game; passing yards, 170 average, and net total yards, 305.4 average. Total yardage was the lowest since 1940 when Michigan led with 272.0 yards per game.

The Illini were tops in points scored, averaging 17.9. It proved to be the most important statistic of all.

Vike Mermen Open Season in OSC Relays

Lawrence Team Will Boast 9 Letterman

The Lawrence College swimming team will be one of nine teams entered in the Oshkosh Relays Saturday at Wisconsin State College in Oshkosh.

The first of 10 relay events will begin at 2 p.m. The Vikings will enter varsity and freshman teams.

Other schools participating in the Relays will be Oshkosh, Loyola University of Chicago, Central Michigan, Northern Illinois, Michigan Tech., University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and Milwaukee Tech.

Loyola, UW-M and Oshkosh State have been installed as the early favorites in a meet which is planned as an annual event. Lawrence, third-place finisher in Midwest Conference action last year, will be a dark horse candidate.

The Viking tankmen of Coach Gene Davis will be led by Co-captains Pete Betzer and Walt Isaac. Other lettermen who have been working out with the squad include Larry Dickman, Tom Conley, Dan Foster, Mike Hartong, Chuck Lenz, Dick Snyder and Nick Vogel. Letterman Rich Goldsmith has not reported as yet.

Promising Newcomer

Bill Bailey, a junior who was not able to participate last season, heads a list of promising newcomers to the varsity. Others include Gus Murphy of De Pere, Todd Mitchell, Court Newman, Fred Nordeen and Larry Wilson.

Three others, Jack Swanson of Appleton and Grant Wheeler, may report later.

Other freshman swimmers will be Chase Fergusson, John Hein, Ed Lake, Bob Paddock and Rich Johnson.

This will be the only competition for the Viking swimmers before the Christmas break.

FVL Jayvees Rip Manawa, Play Winnebago Next

Attempting to extend their Badger Lutheran JV Conference win streak to 13 games, the Fox Valley Lutheran junior varsity will invade Winnebago Lutheran Academy Friday night.

The Junior Foxes have never been defeated in the two years of loop history. The Vikings placed second last year in the Junior FLC circuit.

FVL currently has a 4-0 season mark. The Appleton squad's latest victory—45 to 14—came Tuesday night over Manawa.

The Junior Wolves could sink only 5 out of 47 field shots.

Lions Lost Beathard

'Bidding Was Too Rich,' For No. 1 Pick, Owner Says

DETROIT (AP)—Kansas City AFL club beat out the Lions by snagging the Detroit Lions' top hand Beathard.

1. A bonus in excess of $15,000 for signing.
2. A no-cut contract calling for more than $20,000 a year.
3. A paid-up life insurance policy.
4. Option on shares of stock in a West Coast pay-TV corporation, cost of which would be financed by Kansas City.
5. A new car.
6. Free rent in an apartment for an unspecified duration, but presumably for no less than a year.

The Lions reportedly went as high as a $20,000 contract offer in their attempts to land Beathard, their No. 1 choice in last Monday's NFL draft and Kansas City's top pick in the AFL draft last Saturday.

Army Wonders What Midshipmen Will Try To Pull This Time

Navy Has Come Up With Gimmick in Last 4 Victories

BY WILL GRIMSLEY

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP) — Navy coach, seems to get a Coach Paul Dietzel and his Army football team might be expected for tossing around in their 64th meeting at Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium.

Wayne Hardin, the red-haired Navy coach, seems to get a pucker of delight out of springing nerve-jarring tricks which are kept in closest secrecy until just before the kickoff.

New Formation In 1958, the game that started the current streak, Hardin installed a brand-new formation for the Army game — a formation calling for wide flankers and plays not used all year.

Score: Navy 43, Army 12. The next year — 1960 — Army was expecting some more of the same skulduggery. The Knights were ready for anything — and were waiting for it. Hardin suspected this, so he didn't change a play. The other shoe didn't drop.

Score: Navy 17, Army 12. In 1961, Navy warmed up in regular attire. Then, just before the kickoff, the Middies loped onto the field with their "Flaming Mamie" helmets. If the Army team was stunned, the 100,000 spectators were half-blinded. The helmets were painted with luminous aircraft paint — a garish orange color. On the sleeves of their jerseys, Navy men had inscribed "Beat Army."

Score: Navy 13, Army 7. Last year, the Middies had an answer for Army's celebrated Chinese Bandits, the defensive unit plan which Dietzel had employed so effectively at Louisiana State.

On the front of every Navy helmet were inscribed the words: "Jolly Roger." On one side was written the word "Beat" and on the other the word "Army."

Nothing very tricky about that, except the words were inscribed in Chinese.

Top prospects for other weight classes are Ken Menning and Tim Menning at 133, Ted Parker and John Ellenbecker at 112, Bob Huettl and Don Deizer at 100, Mike Mulroy and Tom McNichols are the top candidates at 127, and Larry Schmitke and Pete Bohman are working at 133. Darryl Krull and Bob Hegner at 128 and Terry Kloeha at 145 are other top candidates.

Other candidates are freshmen Dave Gosse, Tom Becker, Cliff Bungert, Greg Simons, Mike Schroeder, Jim Jentz, Dave Peters, Jerold Miller, Ken Meyer, Dennis Wendt, Roger Frost, Ralph Spert and Gordon Huettl; sophomores Jerry Carney, Henry Monnier, Gary Darow, Alan Wilson, Russell Schiebe and Don Woyers.

Jim Bertschy and Doug Ehle, who have been on the injured list, may or may not see action Friday. Bertschy played only part of the fourth quarter against the Regents, while Ehle didn't suit up.

Emanuel expressed satisfaction with the team's aggressiveness and defensive play Saturday.

At East, the Terrors will encounter their greatest height problem in conference play. The Red Devils Tom Rein (6-foot-5) and Pat Harrington (6-4) are formidable rebounders. Thus towering pair controlled the boards against Green Bay Prentre, but frequent losses of possession (on traveling or bad passes) and poor shooting led to a 57-40 East defeat.

Tallies 31 Points

Rein and Harrington, the only returning East letter men, scored 155 and 121 points, respectively, in conference action last season. Rein tallied 31 points in a pair of losses to Appleton (59-58 and 61-54), while Harrington totaled 16. Hietpas led Terror scoring in the two games, with 38 points. Bock produced 19 in the second game.

New Coach Bob Torresani, who produced a winning team at Merrill, is trying to bolster the fortunes of the Red Devils, who struggled to a 7-35 record for the last three league campaigns. With Harrington and Rein as his nucleus, he can call upon such other players as John Van Lieshout (5-11), Rog Henkelman (5-9), Bob Duca (5-10), Larry Miller (6-1) Russ Lenz (6-1), Sam Larinois (5-11) and Tom Lamberg (5-10).

Duca, who quit the team early in the pre-season practice period, returned this week and will probably see a good deal of action Friday.

Players Rap First-Year Player Rule

Drysdale, a top flight star only 26 years of age who has no fear of losing his job, was equally vehement against the rule which shunts veterans to the minors in favor of kids.

"It's a harmful rule," he said. "It helps nobody and hurts everybody. It hurts the veterans, the kids, the owners, the public. But most of all, it hurts baseball."

"If I were a fan in Houston, I'd be darned if I'd shell out $3.50 to watch wet-behind-the-ears kids with little or no previous professional experience acting like big leaguers."

The athletes' complaints were issued following the player representatives meeting with the owners Wednesday in which they urged their bosses to give their eight-year veterans a break.

In a formal resolution, they asked that clubs increase their 25-player roster to 26, the extra player being at least an eight-year veteran.

This, the players felt would give more protection to some of the older players who have been shipped to the minors to make room for the one-year rookies who must be kept on the big league roster because of the first-year player rule.

"The owners told us they would consider it," said Walls, "but the indication was clear: Bear Creek, Reedsville visits at least to me, they weren't in a mood to go along with us at Hortonville. They are opposed to it because it would cost them a total of offense in racking up 106 points around $320,000 more in salary against Shiocton in its league by keeping an additional 20 opener last week Ten players players."

"This is where they are short-sighted. They forget that one of these players could help win a pennant for them and more than make that money back."

Kaukauna Adult Cage Tickets Are on Sale

KAUKAUNA — Adult season basketball tickets were on sale at the Kaukauna High School. With utilization of the new gym, adults will be provided with reserved seats, according to Guy Krumm, athletic director.

Tickets are good for nine home games and a season's pass amounts to considerable saving break, scoring four times during the evening, to offset the chase, noted the director. Junior High School and grade students, can also realize a saving by buying season's tickets.

The Ghosts are scheduled to open the home season Saturday against Wauwatosa East.

Two of the four unbeaten teams in the Little Nine Conference meet head-on when Hilbert High School travels to Winneconne for a basketball game Friday night.

Other games will have Shiocton at Denmark, Freedom in the second half against Freedom in its opener and will be relying on its superior height to offset the Hilbert scoring punch.

Denmark also put on a good offensive display in posting an 86-65 win over Omro last week. All-around sports star Leon Rassmussen bagged 31 points for the Vikings in that game.

Hortonville and Reedsville will be getting their first taste of conference action Friday. Hortonville entertains Wrightstown, a team which upended Bear Creek, 77-70, in a high-scoring fray. Reedsville makes its loop debut at Omro.

Uses 1-2-2 Zone Rusk's team utilized a fast offense, scoring four times during the evening, to offset the chase, noted the director. Junior High School and grade students, can also realize a saving by buying season's tickets.

The Ghosts are scheduled to open the home season Saturday against Wauwatosa East.

Two of the four unbeaten teams in the Little Nine Conference meet head-on when Hilbert High School travels to Winneconne for a basketball game Friday night.

Other games will have Shiocton at Denmark, Freedom in the second half against Freedom in its opener and will be relying on its superior height to offset the Hilbert scoring punch.

Denmark also put on a good offensive display in posting an 86-65 win over Omro last week. All-around sports star Leon Rassmussen bagged 31 points for the Vikings in that game.

Hortonville and Reedsville will be getting their first taste of conference action Friday. Hortonville entertains Wrightstown, a team which upended Bear Creek, 77-70, in a high-scoring fray. Reedsville makes its loop debut at Omro.

INCREASING HEAT OF A REFLECTOR FIRE

LEANING DRY FIREWOOD UPON GREEN BACKLOGS CAUSES THE FLAMES TO RISE HIGHER FOR MORE REFLECTED HEAT. THIS IS OFTEN DESIRABLE IN COLD WEATHER TO THROW HEAT INTO AN OPEN-FRONTED TENT, BY USING HARDWOOD FOR BACKLOGS. MUST REPLENISH LEANING FIREWOOD AS IT BURNS DOWN TO KEEP A FIRE BURNING ALL NIGHT—A FEW TIMES WON'T DISTURB REST GREATLY.

BREATHIN' BRUSHED PIGSKIN CASUAL SHOES BY WOLVERINE

Hush Puppies are really great. Dad and Lad will love everything about them from the cushiony crepe soles to the sturdy steel shanks. And, they're long on wear, easy on care because they're Hell Cat tanned to resist dirt and soil. A brisk brushing makes them look like new again. You'll find a style, size and width to fit most everybody.

Tic Physical Reaction To Tension on Nerves

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D. out the best in them. Others Dear Dr. Molner: My eight-year-old boy has developed a tic, blinking his eyes and jerking his neck. The doctor says the only cure is plenty of rest and no activities. This is impossible unless I tie him in bed, as he is very high-strung. How long does a tic last?

MRS. P. B. Assuming that no physical or neurological defect is involved, a tic is a nervous habit, a physical reaction to tension. A tic, unless overcome, can be lifelong. Or it may disappear as (or if) tension subsides. I suspect that you and your doctor may be talking at cross purposes, or that something may have been mis-stated or misunderstood. For getting plenty of rest is one thing; "no activities" is quite another. Yes, always see that the boy gets a good night's sleep. Perhaps in addition he can have a period in the afternoon of doing something quietly by himself, a relaxing hour or so. But he also needs a certain amount of exercise to consume excess energy.

Activity Mixup I wonder if there could be a mixup between "activities" and "activity." Boys, even high-strung and nervous ones, need activity. (And they also need plenty of rest.) But "activities" can imply something else—clubs, or Little League teams or what have you. While these are good, they may not necessarily be good for every boy. There is such a thing as being overstimulated by "activities," and that may be what your doctor is driving at, so I suggest that you talk it over with him again.

There may be an element of competition in his activities—with playmates or with his own—kin—that is frustrating to him. Some kids want to be in the game but end up at the bottom of the pile. Overstimulation, from what- ever source, is something to cal- culate against if a child begins operating at too high a pitch. We all need to learn how to key ourselves up and try to do our best. We also have to learn how to diversify our efforts with periods of relaxation. Some youngsters need a push to bring-

Artery Hardening Dear Dr. Molner: I have read that too much calcium causes hardening of the arteries. Is this true? MRS. H. P. M. Lack of enough calcium, especially in older adults, is a far more frequent risk than too much. As with most other necessary items in the diet, the body suffers if there is too little; discards any excess if more than enough appears in the diet; suffers from an oversupply only if it is abnormally extreme. There is no evidence that calcium in the food accelerates or causes hardening of the arteries.

Overweight? Dear Dr. Molner: I am a girl, 14, and weigh 160 pounds. My measurements are 35-29-39 and I am 5 feet 9. Am I overweight? Or is it just natural? P. M. Even for your height, you are decidedly overweight, and are only kidding yourself by wonder- ing if it is "just natural." Start exercising more, eating less, and particularly avoid visible fats, cream soups, cream prod- ucts, fried foods and desserts. You should also cut down on sugars and starchy foods.

Of all the problems that pediatricians encounter in children, pinworm is the commonest. To learn the newest methods of treatment for this best, write for the booklet, "The Common- est Pest, Pinworm," enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20c in coin to cover costs of printing and handling. Dr. Molner welcomes all read- ers mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer in- dividual letters. Readers' ques- tions are incorporated in his col- umn whenever possible. (Copyright, 1963)

Cambodia Bans Two U. S. News Magazines PHNOM PENH, Cambodia. (AP) — The Cambodian govern- ment banned the American Newsweek and Time maga- zines Wednesday, charging they had committed "criti- cal acts of injury against the Cambodian government."

The announcement did not specify which stories in the two magazines were considered ob- jectionable. But presumably the ban stemmed from the cover- age of the rejection of U.S. aid by Norodom Sihanouk, on Nov. 18.

Young Hobby Club Necktie Also Can Serve As Ballpoint Pen Holder BY CAPPY DICK On the days when you wear a necktie to school (and it's a good idea to dress neatly in- stead of looking like the world's sloppiest beatnik dragged from the darkest corner of a clothes closet) let it be a necktie that also serves as the holder of your ballpoint pen.

The pen will not only be in a handy place where you can get it without untangling a lot of other stuff, but it will serve as an unusual decoration as well. Don't use your best necktie for this stunt. Select a tie that Mother is willing to sacrifice for this project. Ask her to make a button hole near the top of the tie (when it has been knotted). This button- hole is shown in Figure 1.

After putting the tie on and Fig- ures 2 and 3.

Of course, be sure the point of the pen is retracted so ink won't be smeared on your neck- tie. No matter how active you are during the day at school, the pen will always remain in place on your tie except, of course, when you remove it to work on your lessons.

Tax Evader Convicted In Milwaukee Court MILWAUKEE (AP) — John Iverson of Soldiers Grove was convicted in U.S. District Court Tuesday of evading more than $6,000 in federal income taxes for 1956-57.

Judge Kenneth P. Grubb, who presided at the two-day trial, ordered a pre-sentence investi- gation. No date was set for sen- tencing.

The prosecution contended Iverson failed to report income from at least seven sources, in- cluding salary as a Soldiers Grove official, royalties from oil leases and other business ventures.

Woolher and report back at the Nov. session. Motion prevailed.

No. 23. Resolution of the Civil Service and Salary Committee. (Abandoning the salary schedule of undersecretary.) To the Honorable, The Outagamie County Board of Supervisors: Gentlemen: WHEREAS, your undersigned committee has studied the position and pay of the Undersecretary for Outagamie County and has come to the conclusion that effective January 1, 1964, the salary schedule of $35,000 to $42,000 per month for the Undersecretary be abandoned and that effective January 1, 1964, he be placed on an annual salary basis of $50,000 (or 12 x $4,200) effective Jan- uary 1, 1964.

RESOLUTION OF THE CIVIL SERVICE AND SALARY COMMITTEE: Edward Pfeiffer, Matt Verfurth, Ervin Conradt, I. Grunwaldt, Frank R. Appleton. Dated this 15th day of October, 1963. To the Honorable, The Board of Supervisors of Outagamie County, Wisconsin. Gentlemen: No. 3 was referred to the County Highway Committee by Chairman Fulcer.

No. 3 is a petition from the Town of Center, requesting County aid for the construction of the McHugh Bridge, located in the said Town of Center.

Your County Highway Committee wishes to make the following report and recommendation to the Board of Supervisors: We therefore recommend that County aid in the estimated sum of $1,500.00 or one-half (1/2) of the total cost of this bridge be granted for the replacement of this bridge, and that the County's share be placed in the November 1962 session of the County Board that in the event this bridge is constructed in 1963, that the Town of Center advance the County's share of the cost as well as the Town's share, and when the County's share is available in March of 1964, the amount of the County's share will be refunded to the Town of Center.

Lawrence Gets Grant in Anthropology

Professor, Four Students to Build Kinship Machine

The 34th local term-time grant of the Social Science Research Council has been made for a project in anthropology at Lawrence College. It has been announced by Dean Chandler W. Rowe.

The council, which awards funds from the Ford Founda- tion, seeks to stimulate student-faculty research projects.

Newest project will be carried out by Dr. Harold Schneider of the anthropology department, with the assistance of four stu- dents: Karen Rinka, Rhineland- er; Terrance Janick, Lake Bluff, Ill.; Linda Durkin, Rhine- lander; and Jon Baxa, Brook- field.

Kinship Machine They will build and test an electric kinship machine, which is used to study basic kinship systems. The National Science Foundation has recently under- written a similar project at the University of Pittsburgh, and has requested other educational institutions to construct and test kinship machines so addi- tional modifications can be incor- porated into the final forms.

Actual construction of the ma- chine will be done by Janick and Baxa, while Miss Rinka and Miss Durkin will test its usefulness.

The machine's purpose is threefold: to examine it as a teaching device and determine its range, limitations and possi- ble modifications, to determine its applicability as a research tool for studying such problems as the consistency of systems of cross-cousin marriage; and to determine its adequacy as a kinship machine.

Baxa and Janick have al- ready suggested it could be mod- ified by a relay mechanism which would allow preprogram- ming of basic patterns of kin- ship systems.

Nationalist China Names New Premier

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Finance Minister C. K. Yen was named premier of Nationalist China Wednesday, replacing Vice President Chen Cheng.

Chen, generally regarded as political heir, resigned Tues- day. Ill health was the an- nounced reason, but informed sources said he was irked be- cause Chiang made several ur- ary military and civil appointments without consulting him.

Chen, 62, was born in 1896. He was a member of the Kuomintang (Nationalist) party and served as premier from 1948 to 1949. He was replaced by Chiang Kai-shek in 1950.

National Traffic Deaths 35,000

CHICAGO (AP)—The nation's traffic deaths in the first 10 months in 1963, with a record high for October, totaled more than 35,000. The National Safety Council reports.

Highway fatalities in October 1963, the third highest ever recorded for one month, compared with 3,880 in October last year.

The council said 35,170 per- sons lost their lives in traffic ac- cidents from Jan. 1 to Nov. 1, an increase of 5 per cent over the 33,420 for the corresponding period last year.

Royal Marriage Plans Announced LONDON (AP) — A source close to the Greek throne says Crown Prince Constantine will marry Princess Anna-Marie of Denmark in January 1965.

"I don't think the actual date has been decided upon, but it should be sometime between the first part and the middle of Jan- uary," the informant said. The wedding will take place in Ath- ens.

Appleton Share Of Power Taxes At New High

Other Fox Valley Communities Will Receive Checks Also

The City of Appleton will receive a record $174,321 as its share of Wisconsin-Michigan Power Company's 1963 property tax payment. The amount is $19,680 higher than last year's payment.

According to law, utility taxes are paid to the State and then apportioned to the cities, towns, villages and counties in which the utility owns property. The Power Company's property tax bill for its Wisconsin operation this year was $955,500. Of that amount the State will retain 17 per cent more than last year, while the remaining 83 per cent will be distributed to units of local government. Headquarters of the company are in Appleton. Outagamie County's share of the tax payment is $80,259; an increase of $8,453 over last year. All other municipalities and counties within the Company's service area will receive payments according to the amount of property and business conducted in their respective areas.

In all, 12 counties, 101 towns, 12 villages and 11 cities will receive a share of the tax money. Some of the government units in the Fox Valley area that will receive shares and the amount each will receive include: City of Neenah, $77,748; City of Menasha, $24,831; Town of Grand Chute, $21,257; Town of Greenville, $3,605; Town of Seymour, $2,215; Village of Hortonville, $3,580; Village of Kimberly, $15,658; Village of Combined Locks, $945; and Town of Freedom, $3,955.

Total property tax assessment for the Power Company's combined Wisconsin-Michigan operations amounted to $1,416,458 for 1963. This is an increase of 9 per cent over last year's payment.

In the past ten years Wisconsin-Michigan Power Company's property taxes have more than doubled while a corresponding increase in all other taxes also has taken place.

President Johnson Church Council Tries to Prod Byrd Group's Tax Action

Invites Virginia Senator to Lunch to Discuss Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson invited Sen. Harry F. Byrd of Virginia to the White House for lunch today in another maneuver aimed at attempting to prod an $11 billion tax cut bill through Congress.

Senate Finance

The tax bill has passed the house. Byrd's Committee has no disposition to shove it along quickly, even though Johnson has given it a top priority, just as President John F. Kennedy did.

Johnson has been using every opportunity to build up support for the bill—he called on labor and business leaders yesterday to get behind it, as well as civil rights legislation.

"I am the President, but I can do nothing without the people," Johnson told the AFL-CIO Executive Committee Wednesday. "You represent the people. I need you and I want you by my side."

Less than an hour later he went before the Business Advisory Council with this pledge: "This administration wants to help you. We are not pro-labor, or pro-business or pro-any special group. We are pro what is best for America."

"I am the only President you have," Johnson told some 60 business leaders, Cabinet members and economic advisers. "If you would have me fail, then you fail, for the country fails."

Tariff Increases

Johnson's speeches to union and industry leaders climaxed a busy White House day during which he also:

- Ordered tariff boosts of $23.9 million a year on five commodities in retaliation for increased import levies on U.S. poultry shipped to member nations of the European Economic Community.
- Announced he will confer Jan. 22 with Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson of Canada.
- Slipped out of the White House to spend a half hour at a Capitol luncheon of the Texas congressional delegation.

Coastless despite the December chill, Johnson went to the White House rose garden to tell some 40 union leaders and government officials:

"The No. 1 priority today and tomorrow is more jobs and the goal of this administration is 75 million jobs in America." That would be an increase of 5 million.

Church Council Hears Appeals For Civil Rights

Expected to Debate Strong Resolutions But to Approve Them

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Two strong civil rights resolutions were placed before the general assembly of the National Council of Churches today.

The Rev. Dr. Robert W. Spike, executive director of the council's commission on religion and race, said in an interview that he felt both resolutions would be debated but would be approved by the 5,000 delegates.

Dr. Spike, an officer of the United Church of Christ on leave to head the commission, said one resolution called on the assembly to support President Johnson in his campaign to win early passage of the late President John F. Kennedy's civil rights bill. The other urged a complete desegregation of churches.

Would Force Action

Dr. Spike said the first resolution urged members of the assembly to urge their congressmen to sign a discharge petition, a rare parliamentary maneuver, which would force the civil rights legislation to the House floor for action.

House Democratic leaders are planning to introduce the petition Monday. It requires the signatures of 213 congressmen, or half the House membership. The bill is stalled in the House Rules Committee.

"If this resolution is passed," said Dr. Spike, "I will go before the assembly and urge everyone present to go home by way of Washington and to call on their congressmen to urge him to sign the discharge petition."

Kidnapers Tried to Sell Him on Communism but Gave Him Good Treatment

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Tired but otherwise in good shape, Col. James K. Chenault of Sherman, Tex., was freed today by pro-Communist terrorists who kidnaped him last Wednesday.

The deputy chief of the U.S. military Mission in Venezuela told a jammed news conference his kidnapers tried to indoctrinate him in Communism. "But I told them some facts about life in the United States."

The terrorist campaign was a failure. A record number of Venezuelans turned out to vote in the election. But it continued to hold him after the vote.

The U.S. Embassy said Chenault's kidnapers took him to a point a few blocks from his home and he walked from there. He reached home at 6 a.m. and telephoned embassy officials at once.

The FALN widened its campaign of violence to include British targets. Previously the targeted. I was guarded constantly.

Jews, Arabs Hail Pope's Pilgrimage

Pontiff Expected to Set Another Precedent by Flying

BY JAMES M. LONG

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The unprecedented pilgrimage to the Holy Land by Pope Paul VI will be made in the first 10 days of January, a Vatican spokesman said today. Jews and Arabs alike welcomed the news.

The Pope is expected to break a second precedent by making the trip by plane. No pontiff has flown before, although as a cardinal Pope Paul frequently used planes.

Christian and Jewish leaders around the world praised the Pope's decision to make the pilgrimage, coming at a time when the Catholic Church has taken steps toward Christian unity.

Pope Guest of King

King Hussein, Moslem monarch of Jordan, announced that the Pope would be his personal guest. A spokesman for Israel's embassy in Rome said: "We are waiting impatiently to be contacted by the Vatican." Both the Israeli and Jordan embassies said no visas will be required.

The pontiff will be visiting a Holy Land long divided by the hostility of Arabs and Jews. In his surprise announcement at the end of the Vatican Ecumenical Council's second session Wednesday, Pope Paul said he wanted to make the pilgrimage "on behalf of peace among men."

The 2,200 cardinals, archbishops, and patriarchs hastened back to their dioceses after the council's second two-month session.

The third session of the council will be held in September 1964.

2 Sisters Die in Lake Geneva Fire Tragedy

LAKE GENEVA (AP) — Two elderly sisters died Wednesday in a fire that destroyed their home. The husband of one was driven back by smoke and flames as he attempted to aid them.

The victims were Mrs. Rose Ricker, 78, Mrs. Carrie Martinson, 76.

Mrs. Ricker was an invalid; unable to leave her bed and Mrs. Martinson was a semi-invalid. They were brought from the flaming house by firemen wearing asbestos suits, but attempts to revive the sisters were unsuccessful.

Mrs. Ricker's husband, George, 82, received a cut hand when he broke a window in an attempt to help them. He drove to the nearby police department to report the fire.

The cause of the blaze was not determined immediately and a state fire marshal was called to investigate.

Senator Shot Dead in Brazil

Innocent Victim Of Bullet Aimed at Another Lawmaker

BRASILIA, Brazil (AP) — A senator fired three shots at an opponent in Brazil's Senate chamber Wednesday and missed his target, but accidentally killed a third lawmaker.

The innocent victim was Sen. Jose Calrala, who died while undergoing surgery.

Calrala, from the western frontier state of Acre, was struck in the stomach by one bullet fired by Sen. Arnon de Melo.

Witnesses said De Melo whipped out a pistol and took aim from the speaker's platform at Sen. Silvestre Pericles, a Peppery Politician.

Pericles, 67, a man known for his violent temper, had said he would shoot De Melo if he rose to speak. Both are from the northeast state of Alagoas, which has a reputation for stormy politics.

Pericles, a member of the Senate since 1957, had opposed the election of De Melo, a freshman.

Sen. Joao Agripino told newsmen he grabbed Pericles, who was about to return the fire, and disarmed him.

"His revolver was fully loaded, and hadn't been fired," Agripino said.

Both men were placed in military custody. The Senate appointed an investigating committee.

Senate sources said the feud was personal with no bearing on national politics. De Melo is a member of the conservative Christian Democratic party. Pericles belongs to President Joao Goulart's leftist Labor party.

Calrala had not been involved in the dispute, sources said.

Private Graveside Services

2 Kennedy Infants Are Reburied in Arlington

WASHINGTON (AP) — The two infant children of President Kennedy who preceded him in death now lie beside their father in Arlington National Cemetery.

The bodies of the infants were flown to Washington Wednesday aboard the family plane. Carment and reinterred on either side of the late President's grave Wednesday night — presumably by decision of his widow, Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy.

The children are Patrick Bouvier Kennedy, who was born prematurely Aug. 7 and died within 40 hours, and a baby girl born dead in 1956. The boy had been buried at Brookline, Mass., and the girl at Newport, R.I.

Mrs. Kennedy and the late President's brothers, Sen. Edward M. (Ted) Kennedy, D-Mass., and Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, attended the brief graveside rites.

Sen. Kennedy accompanied the bodies on the flight to Washington. Mrs. Kennedy and her children, Caroline, 6, and John Jr., 3, returned to the White House Sunday night after spending Thanksgiving with other members of the Kennedy family at Hyannis Port, Mass.

The burial service was held between 8:45 and 9 p.m., long after the cemetery had closed for the night and visitors to the President's grave had departed.

Few of those who spoke to the newsmen seemed worried by South Africa's racial troubles.

2 Kennedy Infants Are Reburied in Arlington

Bishop Philip Hannan, auxiliary bishop of the Roman Catholic archdiocese of Washington, presided. He had delivered a tribute to the President at Kennedy's funeral service Nov. 25.

Announcement of the reinterment was made by Pierre Salinger, who said he acted as a representative of the Kennedy family rather than as White House press secretary.

Salinger said that some three acres of the cemetery—which is reserved for American servicemen, their wives and their children—had been "turned over to the Kennedy family."

Tories Face Tests In 3 Elections

LONDON (AP) — Britain held three special elections today to fill seats in the House of Commons.

Main attention was focused on London's Marylebone district, a Conservative stronghold. There the former Lord Hailsham, who renounced his title to return to active politics as Quintin Hogg, was running as the Tory candidate against Labor's Peter Plowicz, a 33-year-old teacher.

The other elections were in Manchester's Openshaw district, where Charles Morris was defending a safe Labor seat against Conservative and Communist opponents, and Woodbridge, on the Suffolk coast. There former Keith Mason was fighting to hold a Conservative seat that could swing to Labor.

Intelligence Chief of Prince Souvanna Slain by Assassins

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma's intelligence chief, Col. Leuang, was assassinated early today as he arrived at his home on the outskirts of Vientiane.

The unknown assassins reportedly escaped in the dark.

Leuang was the chief of the Deuxieme (second) Bureau, the coalition government's intelligence section. Like Prince Souvanna, he was a member of the neutralist faction which in theory governs Laos in coalition with the right wing and the pro-Communist Pathet Lao.

There was no immediate indication of the motive for the slaying.

The assassins reportedly opened fire on Leuang's automobile with at least three automatic weapons. Leuang apparently was killed instantly.

26 Miners Die in Hungarian Blast

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — Twenty-six Hungarian miners were killed in an explosion Wednesday night at a coal mine at Tatabanya, the Hungarian news agency MTI reported today.

Four other miners were injured.

The agency said the blast was a damppipe explosion.

Tatabanya is a mining center 30 miles west of Budapest.

Byrnes Delays Word On Favorite Son Race

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. John W. Byrnes, R-Wis., is expected to delay for at least a month his announcement on whether he will be a favorite son candidate for the Republican presidential nomination in Wisconsin's 1964 primary.

Rep. Melvin Laird, R-Wis., leader of the Byrnes backers, said Wednesday the announcement was delayed in keeping with the political moratorium agreed to by both parties after the death of President Kennedy.

Tells of Family History

Mother Says She's Sure Oswald Did Not Shoot President Kennedy

BY BERNARD GAVER

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Perhaps one day in the year 2063, a school boy will open a history book and read of the Black Friday 100 years before on which President John Fitzgerald Kennedy was assassinated.

His study will bring him Lee Harvey Oswald, a 24-year-old malcontent, who was accused of the assassination, but was murdered before being brought to trial.

Didn't Have Day in Court

If he goes deeper into the story, he may come across the name of Mrs. Marguerite Claverie Oswald.

Mrs. Oswald, a grey-haired, 56-year-old practical nurse, is the mother of Lee Harvey Oswald.

She, too, may become the subject of history because an inquiry into the nature of her son must turn to the person who played the greatest role in shaping him. That person is Mrs. Oswald.

"Any guilt I have for making him what he was, I will accept," she says. "But this is not for the assassination. I do not care what the FBI says, or what any special commission or court may say. He did not have a trial. He did not have his day in court. I heard him say on television, the same as millions of others heard him, 'I did not kill anyone. I did not kill anyone.' I know he never did it. I know my son."

The death of her son is another burden in a life littered with millstones, according to her recounting.

Life began for her in New Orleans July 19, 1907, born to Dorla and John Claverie. At the age of 2½, she was left motherless.

Little is known of the 22 years following, and she evades discussing her childhood and young womanhood. This, apparently, is something she is saving—along with many other facets of her life—for a projected book. But in 1929, she became the wife of a man named Pic.

"I was with Mr. Pic two and half years," she says, referring to him in formal language. "I became with child, but he didn't want children. I was three months pregnant when I left him. Mr. Pic voluntarily supported me and then the baby, John E. Pic, until the child was 18."

(John E. Pic is an Air Force sergeant of 14 years service, now stationed at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Tex., where he is a laboratory technician at the 1,000-bed Wilford Hall Air Force Hospital.)

John Pic was born in January, 1932, and about 18 months later his mother married Robert Ed-

Loss of U2 and Its Pilot Did Not Involve Gunfire

WASHINGTON (AP) — After examining its records, Air Force investigators have ruled out the possibility that a U2 reconnaissance plane was shot down over the Gulf of Mexico two weeks ago.

However, they still have not pinpointed what caused the U2 to crash into the Gulf some 40 miles northwest of Key West, Fla., apparently after completing a high altitude photo reconnaissance mission over Cuba.

The pilot, Air Force Capt. Joe G. Hyde Jr. of La Grange, Ga., has been declared dead, although his body has not been recovered. The wreckage of the U2 was retrieved from waters 100 feet deep and has been examined by members of an accident investigation board set up by the Strategic Air Command.

The Air Force told The Associated Press today the remains of the plane showed no evidence of rocket hits or rents from bullet, cannon or other gunfire.

The cause of the U2's loss is not yet known. The Air Force said the accident is still under investigation.

Farm Bureau Hails Dairy Bill Defeat

Measure Would Have Set Up State Price Fixing System

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
MADISON — Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation today hailed the defeat in the State Legislature recently of a measure sponsored by local independent dairies to set up a state price fixing system for the fluid milk and cream market. The measure was enacted after a considerable struggle in the senate, but was killed in the assembly's recess throes of regular deliberations in November. The topic cannot come up again in the special session summoned by the governor, and thus no action on it is likely until dairies renew their drive for such a control system in the regular session of 1965. Spokesmen for the independent milk distributors complained they are being driven out of business by nationally organized competitors, and about the sales practices of the nationally-owned dairies.

Explain View
But the Federation today explained its view that "milk prices should be the result of negotiation in the marketplace." "No government agency is capable of fixing prices that reflect a true competitive situation so as to give producers and consumers some of the benefits that result from the introduction of more efficient methods in the handling and marketing of milk."

In reviewing other legislative developments of the year touching upon the interests of agriculture, the farm organization noted a bill to set up a state meat inspection system for meat and meat products in intrastate commerce again failed of enactment.

Science Floorspace Will be Tripled at Lawrence College

$1,885,000 Youngchild Hall Will be Completed Next Year

Lawrence College will virtually triple its academic floorspace in the sciences when the $1,885,000 Youngchild Hall is completed next September.

The present instruction area in Stephenson Hall of Science is 22,638 square feet; the total of Youngchild plus Stephenson will be 60,195 square feet. About a thousand square feet of Stephenson will be lost to instructional purposes in remodeling.

The increase in general facilities and equipment is shown in comparative floorspace. The chemistry department presently uses 5,788 square feet. Physics will increase from 2,553 to 6,646; geology from 2,659 to 5,140; and mathematics from 651 to 2,281. Some of its mathematics classes are taught in Main Hall and were not taken into the calculation.

Gains in anthropology and psychology cannot be accurately represented, for they will change buildings. Their future quarters measure 3,501 and 4,569 square feet, respectively.

Two features of Youngchild Hall are completely new to the campus. They are the 2,626 square foot radioactive facility in the basement of the building, and a computer room housing a rented IBM 1620 digital computer for research.

Gunman May Be in County

Former Racine Man Believed to be at Farm in Greenville

A former Racine man who in September reportedly shot and wounded a tavern patron in Racine, is being sought once again in Outagamie County.

Sheriff Calvin Spicer said today he and several members of his department are seeking Felix Rangel, 29, at a Town of Greenville farm home where the man's mother and brother live.

Kenosha police informed the Outagamie County Sheriff's Department that Rangel is believed to have left Texas three days ago and may be heading for Outagamie County. Kenosha is seeking the man for questioning on passing worthless checks.

Racine police today said they still had a warrant charging Rangel with attempted murder on the night of Sept. 21.

Outagamie County Sheriff authorities said they have been seeking Rangel "off and on" since September at the Town of Greenville farmhome but he has not shown up.

Police in Kenosha said Rangel is also being sought in Abilene, Tex. for a shooting. Police said the man is armed and considered dangerous and is believed to be a dope addict.

He is identified as being dark, short, weighing 130 pounds and has a tattoo of a cross in the middle of his forehead.

Real estate was valued at $33,000, with personal property amounting to $556,880. Life insurance was valued at $16,909 and other miscellaneous was listed at $1,260.

Debts amounted to $3,294 and burial was $2,293. Administration was listed at $27,648 and federal taxes were $90,779. Heirs paid an estimated $22,779 in state taxes.

Teacher Relief Hired by Board At Weyauwega

Lay Person Will Supervise Study Hall in Morning

WEYAUWEGA — In an effort to relieve an extra teacher for classroom duties, the Weyauwega Union School District Board of Education, Monday night hired a lay person to supervise study hall students.

Mrs. Cal Cheek, who was named to the supervising position, will work during four morning periods each day and will be paid on an hourly basis. She will start her new duties when school reopens after the Christmas holidays Jan. 2.

By having Mrs. Cheek supervise the study hall, regular teachers will be able to conduct additional classes in home economics, biology and mathematics. A teacher also will be made available to conduct an expanded organized noon recreation program.

First in Area
H. James Ramsdell, superintendent, said if the new program proves successful it may be expanded with afternoon study hall classes supervised by a lay person.

"Although a program of this type is not entirely new in Wisconsin," Ramsdell said, "Weyauwega will be one of the first in the northeastern part of the state to use a lay supervisor."

The board also authorized the purchase of 82 new uniforms for the school band. The new red and black uniforms will be the same style worn by the Buckingham Palace guards except that the jackets will be fitted instead of straight. Large caps resembling the bear skin caps worn by the guard also will be a part of each uniform. Delivery is expected within 90 days.

Ramsdell said.

A program to replace a portion of the uniforms each year also was approved by the board. Ramsdell said with a program of this type it will not be necessary to buy new uniforms at one time as was necessary now.

Menominee Enterprises Meeting Set

Shareholders to Gather at Neopit This Saturday

Post-Crescent News Service
NEOPIT—The third annual meeting for shareholders of Menominee Enterprises Inc., the tribe's business corporation, will be here Saturday.

Menominee Indian shareholders will meet at 1 p.m. in the St. Anthony School gymnasium.

One of the main items of business will be reports from Leo V. Bodine, corporation president who is resigning effective Dec. 31, and other company officers. They will review the company's operations in forestry, lumber production and recreational development of Menominee County's 234,000 acres over the year ending last Sept. 30.

Elect Members
Other business will include election of one of seven members of the Menominee Voting Trust, which casts ballots for shareholders in naming the company's board of directors and officers.

The term presently held by George W. Kenote, Neopit, assistant to Bodine, is expiring. Kenote is one of four Menominees serving on the trustee board. A tribal member will be elected to succeed him. Other trustee board members are M. W. Grignon, chairman, George Pecore and Hilary Waukau, all of Menominee County, and state forester John Beale, Madison; Judge William Moser, Milwaukee, and former State Sen. William Trinke, Racine.

Fur Association Schedules Fall Sale at New London

NEW LONDON — A business meeting of the VFW Auxiliary will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the clubhouse.

NEW LONDON—The Wisconsin Muskrat and Beaver Farmers Association, Inc., will hold its annual fall fur sale here Dec. 14 at 515 N. Water Street.

Hubert Lehman, association secretary and fur committee chairman, said between $75,000 and $100,000 worth of raw pelts are expected to be auctioned off. Buyers from major fur houses in Madison, Wausau and Green Bay will be present.

Trappers are not required to be members of the association to offer furs for sale, Lehman said. A registration fee of $1 is assessed the trappers, regardless of how many furs they have for sale.

Grading and fur inspection will start at 7 a.m. and continue until noon. The auction will begin at 1 p.m. Trappers from New London, Oshkosh, Shiocton, Winneconne, Berlin, Omro, Horicon and other north-eastern communities will offer furs.

Most of the furs will be muskrat with some mink, coon and fox. A spring sale also is sponsored by the association and at that time beavers and other also are among the furs put on the auction block.

Floorspace At Lawrence To Be Tripled

to the services in the lecture desk. This will allow the lecture room to be used for different courses in consecutive hours.

Youngchild Hall is planned so the lecture room and an area containing a kitchenette, two seminar rooms and rest rooms can be used independently of the rest of the building for public events.

A planetarium dome will be built, but will remain unfinished.

Another feature of the building is a service chaise system, or a utilities core running the length of all floors, containing water, gas, electricity, compressed air and ventilation.

Accessible Pipes

Partitions to the chaises are easily demountable for service; consequently every pipe in the building is accessible over its entire length. Above the chaises a penthouse contains the bulk of the ventilating machinery, to pull fumes through a minimum of vertical ductwork. The method is more efficient than blowing. The penthouse will be light and demountable so it can be removed if a fifth level is ever added.

Separate departmental facilities follow:

Physics—below ground level will be a radiation laboratory consisting of high and low level radiation areas, and space for a radiation source. A dozen small rooms clustered around will give space for radioactive research on plants and animals, and a constant temperature room for radiated experiments. A magnet room and a large room for counting the level of radioactivity in materials are also on that level.

On the ground floor are major laboratories in elementary physics; modern physics which includes facilities for optics; an electricity and magnetism laboratory; as well as an electronics shop and the "showcase" of the building—the rectifier and battery room, containing an impressive panel of lights and plug holes on which variable voltage patterns can be set for any physics laboratory, and a separate storeroom which will be kept under slight compression to avoid entry by chemical fumes.

Major Laboratories

Chemistry—The first floor of Youngchild will contain four major laboratories: general chemistry for 64 (actually two laboratories divided by a balance room); organic and analytical chemistry for 24 each; and physical chemistry for 10 students. There is an instrument laboratory, a second balance room for advanced courses, an experimental darkroom, and spaces for chromatography and constant temperature baths. Chemistry facilities retained in Stephenson are chiefly faculty offices and lecture rooms.

Biology—Laboratories on the second floor of Youngchild include animal physiology, ecology and invertebrates, plant physiology, and bacteriology. Smaller areas will provide space for two future pre-fabricated conditioned rooms which were eliminated from the initial construction because of cost; there will be plant and environmental rooms, operating, microtechnique, sterilizing, instruments and chromatography rooms.

Biology rooms retained on the second floor of Stephenson Hall include vertebrate and plant morphology, general biology, a lecture room and research space. Another pre-fabricated conditioned room will be added there.

Psychology, in the basement of Youngchild, will consist of a large general laboratory adjoined by four small experiment rooms relatively free of sound. There are two seminar rooms, a psychological maze room, an animal room and our research laboratories.

Geology Space

In the old Stephenson building, geology will take over the full basement; the first floor will be given to offices for chemistry and psychology, general class and lecture rooms. The second floor will continue to be used for biology as described earlier; and the third floor will be divided between mathematics and anthropology.

The building was designed by Shattuck, Siewert, and Associates, Inc., of Neenah. It was made possible by an initial gift of $1 million from Casper E. Youngchild, an Appleton consulting engineer who was general manager of manufacturing for International Paper Co. from 1931 to 1945.

Chilton, Brillion in EW Cage Encounter

Conference's Only Undeclared Teams Clash in Valdars-Sheboygan Falls Game

EASTERN WIS. CONFERENCE
Valders	1	1	0
Chilton	1	1	0

New Holstein at Kiel.
Chilton at Brillion.
Sheboygan Falls at Valdars.
Oostburg at Plymouth.
Elkhart Lake at Kohler.

CHILTON — Chilton has two Eastern Wisconsin Conference basketball games scheduled for the weekend. On Friday night the Tigers travel to Brillion to battle the Lions and on Saturday play host to Casco in a non-league outing.

Friday's game is rated a toss-up. The Lions have been disappointing, dropping three straight decisions including two league games, since nipping Casco in their opener. League followers, however, feel that the Lions have not yet played up to their potential.

Chilton is 1-1 in the league and 2-1 overall. The Tigers turned in one of their best showings in years last week in a convincing victory over Kohler. The Lions look to Jim Ross for the bulk of their offense while Chilton has been relying on a balanced offense led by Jim Vogel and Scott Wilson.

League Spotlight

The league spotlight will be focused on the Valdars basketball court where the Vikings will battle the Sheboygan Falls Falcons in a clash of the league's only two undefeated quintets. Both are 2-0 in league play.

Leading the Falcons attack will be big Mike Maurer, the defending league scoring champion. Dennis Scheidt, the Viking counterpart of Maurer, has been the Valdars mainspring. With better balance and the home floor, the Vikings should win.

Oostburg's flying Dutch men and the Plymouth Panthers will match 1-1 records at Plymouth. The Panthers surprised everybody with a early win over New Holstein but went back to normal losing to Elkhart Lake.

The New Holstein Huskies lived up to their pre-season expectations for the first time last week when they routed Brillion 96-60 and should have enough guns to handle the Kiel Raiders. The game will be played at Kiel. Both teams hold 1-1 marks.

Elkhart Lake will match its 1-1 record against the 0-2 record of the Kohler Blue Bombers. Kohler, the league's biggest team, has been the league's biggest disappointment to date.

Form Home-School Unit in Calumet Community

CHILTON — A Home-School Association was recently organized at Holy Trinity Parish, Jericho. The organization was promoted by Sister Mary Julitta, St. Phillips School, Green Bay. Mr. and Mrs. La Vern Schmitz were elected president and co-president; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Tasch, secretary and co-secretary; and Mr. and Mrs. John Schmitz, treasurer and co-treasurer.

The group will hold three meetings a year, on the second Thursday in November, January and March.

Awards Presented to Brillion Cub Scouts

BRILLION — "The World of Sound" was the theme of the Cub Scout pack meeting at the High School Monday.

Awards were Bobcat pins to Bruce Behnke and Jeff Zutz; bear badge to Pat Bodwin; lion badges to Charles Hendricks, Jim Schmidt, John Emmer, Tom Peters, Bob Sielaff, and David Thorp; webelos to Steve Smith; gold arrows to Don Hauser, Bob Sielaff and John Emmer; denner bars to Terry Berge, and assistant denner bars to Pat Bodwin.

Service stars were earned by Hervie Smith, Charles Burich, Randy Zutz, Tim Coonen, Terry Berge, Charles Hoegstad, Jay Vanderhoof, Pat Bodwin, Douglas and Dennis Koehler, Tom Peters and Steve Smith.

Wittenberg Pastor To Be Reinstalled

WITTENBERG — The Rev. Myron Haleen will be installed as pastor of Redeemer Lutheran Church Sunday by Dr. Theodore Ohlroge, Appleton, district president.

The 10 a.m. service will be at the high school gymnasium. The Rev. Mr. Haleen has been serving First Lutheran Church, but First Lutheran Church and St. John Lutheran Church will merge Jan. 1.

The service will feature special music by the choir and be followed by a dinner for council members and their wives.

4-H Leaders to Meet

MANAWA—A meeting of the Waupaca County 4-H Leaders council is scheduled at 8 p.m. Monday at Manawa city hall, according to Phillip Jeske, county 4-H agent.

Laird Denies GOP Platform Appointment

Refutes Published Reports He Will Head Committee

Post-Crescent News Service

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Rep. Melvin R. Laird (R-Wis.) denied Wednesday that he has been chosen by party leaders to head the platform committee of the 1954 Republican convention.

Reached by phone in the House of Representatives office building, Laird said published reports by the Milwaukee Sentinel and the Associated Press that he had been selected, were not correct.

"I told the Sentinel and the AP man that I had no comment to make when I was contacted yesterday and today," Laird said.

However, Laird's denial that the appointment has been made does not preclude his being selected to head the group which will prepare the GOP planks for next year's convention.

Laird said nothing officially had been decided as yet, and when a decision was arrived at, an announcement would come from Rep. William E. Miller of New York, the GOP national chairman.

Laird said to his knowledge, Miller and the Republican National Committee had arrived at no firm decision.

"The Sentinel's version, carried by the Associated Press, that I have been selected as chairman of the platform committee is incorrect," Laird emphasized.

"I have no further comment to make at this time," Laird said.

Laird said that if and when the appointment is made, he would be "happy to comment." However, he insisted the speculative press accounts have been premature.

Laird said Miller and other Republican party officials have made no disclosure of their plans. Laird, 41, served as the committee's vice chairman in 1950. The appointment of Laird has been rumored for several months, and may be announced soon by Miller.

Laird has served on the platform committee for every GOP national convention since 1942. The committee drafts the principles on which the party bases its campaigns.

It is known that Laird favors a platform much briefer than the 14,000 word document prepared for the 1950 campaign.

The New Schick Le Salon Professional Hairdryer Especially Designed for Home Use

69<sup>95</sup>

Come in & visit with
"Diane",
Representative from Schick
Friday & Saturday in Our 4th Floor Small Appliance Dept.

Le Salon by Schick

Dries hair faster, better than any other dryer! Soft, zephyr-like air is so gentle you never need a net or ear pads, and leaves your hair soft, easy to manage. Doesn't bake your hair so it won't ever change the color of bleached or tinted hair. Extra quiet too, with large adjustable hood to accommodate any hair style. Gives cool, medium or hot temperatures and rolls easily on nylon wheels for portability. Stores in any small space.

Schick 'Petite Salon' Portable Hairdryer

Set or shampoo your hair and 'Petite Salon' will dry it fast. Just dial any of 4 temperatures! Vented hood fits easily over rollers! Comes with convenient built in mirror, storage, electric nail file and nail polish dryer
